INTRODUCTION

This pamphlet is designed to inform you of the basic steps in an Eviction (Summary Process) action. It is not intended as a substitute for the advice of an attorney. The clerk's office is not responsible for any errors or omissions in this pamphlet. If you feel you need more information or assistance, you should either consult an attorney or read the appropriate sections of the Connecticut General Statutes and Connecticut Practice Book. The material in this booklet does not address the specific law pertaining to commercial property leases, and, therefore, should not be relied upon in cases involving commercial property disputes.

Note: This pamphlet refers to a single landlord, tenant or defendant for ease of reading only. Actual eviction cases may involve multiple landlords, tenants and/or defendants.

NOTICE TO QUIT

The first step in the Summary Process (Eviction) procedure is the Notice to Quit Possession. The form you must use for the Notice to Quit, which the court will provide upon request, must be completed with the exact name and address, including the apartment number, floor number or other designation, if any, of each adult tenant you want to evict and must be signed by you as the plaintiff/landlord. There must be an original Notice to Quit Possession and sufficient additional copies for each tenant who lives there. You should also keep 1 (one) copy for your own records. (See JD-HM-7 on page 15)

You must state a reason on the Notice to Quit. The most frequently used reasons for evictions are non-payment of rent and termination of lease by lapse of time. These materials are designed to assist you in those types of cases. Evictions for other reasons may be more complex cases and are not addressed in this booklet.

Always include in the Notice to Quit Possession the names of all adults living in the premises. If you know that there are adults living in the premises, but you do not know their names, you may characterize them as John and/or Jane Doe, as appropriate.

In any eviction, the Notice to Quit must allow the tenant at least 3 (three) full days in which to move. This means that there must be 3 (three) full intervening days between the date the Notice to Quit is served on your tenant and the last day specified in the Notice to Quit for the tenant to vacate the premises.

The first and last days are not counted in computing the 3 (three) days. (For example, if the Notice specifies that the tenant must move out by May 15, the state marshal must serve the Notice no later than May 11.)

In all cases, the tenants have until midnight of the last day given to them in the Notice to Quit to vacate the premises before you can proceed with the Summons and Complaint, as explained below.

Month-to-Month Tenancy. In nonpayment of rent situations which involve oral or written month-to-month tenancies, the Notice to Quit cannot be served until the tenth day after the date the rent was due, not counting the due date. (For example, if the rent is due on May 1, the Notice to Quit cannot be served until May 11.)

However, the Notice to Quit may also be served during the month immediately following the nonpayment of rent in a month-to-month tenancy. (For example, if the rent due on May 1 is not paid, the Notice to Quit may be served at any time from May 11 through the end of June.)

Week-to-Week Tenancy. In nonpayment of rent situations which involve oral or written week-to-week tenancies, the Notice to Quit cannot be served until the fifth day after the rent was due, not counting the due date. (For example, if the rent is due on May 10, the Notice to Quit cannot be served until May 15.)

However, the Notice to Quit may also be served during the week immediately following the nonpayment of rent in a week-to-week tenancy. (For example, if the rent due on May 10 is not paid, the Notice to Quit may be served at any time from May 15 through the end of the next week, which would be May 23.)

Lapse of Time. In cases when an oral or written lease has terminated by lapse of time (“without cause eviction”), the tenant must be given at least 3 (three) full days and at least until the end of the time period to which he or she would normally have been entitled to vacate the premises. (For example, in an oral month-to-month situation running from May 1 to May 31, if the Notice to Quit is served no later than May 27, it must give the tenant at least until the last day of the month, which is May 31 in this case. If, however, the Notice to Quit is not served until May 28, it must give the tenant until June 1 to vacate.) (See JD-HM-7 on page 15)

The Notice to Quit must be formally served. Service by a state marshal will satisfy this requirement. The fee charged by the state marshal for service is approximately $35.00 to $45.00. After the state marshal serves the Notice to Quit, the original will be returned to you, with the state marshal’s signature, indicating that service was made. This is known as the State Marshal’s Return of Service.

SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT

If your tenant still has not moved after the last day given in the Notice to Quit, you must return to the clerk’s office with the original Notice to Quit, the State Marshal’s Return of Service, and a completed Summons and Complaint. (See JD-HM-32 on page 16 for an example of a completed Summons. See JD-HM-8 on page 17 for an example of a Complaint issued for nonpayment of rent in an oral, month-to-month tenancy, and JD-HM-20 on page 18 for a Complaint issued for termination of lease by lapse of time in an oral month-to-month tenancy.) You will need to make 1 (one) original and a copy for each of the tenants/defendants. In addition, you should keep 1 (one) copy of everything for your records. Be sure to indicate in numbers 1 (one) and 3 (three) of either Complaint whether it is an oral or written week-to-week, month-to-month or year's lease.

You must personally return to the court with your completed Summons and Complaint for the clerk's signature on the Summons. Also, bring the original Notice to Quit with the State Marshal's Return of Service. The clerk will set the return date on the Summons. The return date is a date from which certain time periods are measured, such as when the defendant must file an Appearance or a Pleading (Response). The return date can be any day of the week except Sundays and holidays. It is not necessary for you to appear in court on the return date because there will be no hearing on that date. After the clerk sets the return date and signs the Summons, you should keep 1 (one) copy of all papers for yourself and give the original and sufficient copies for each defendant to the state marshal, who will serve a copy on each defendant and return the original to you. The fee for this service is approximately $45.00 to $60.00.

Once the state marshal returns the original Summons and Complaint to you with the Return of Service noted, you must file them at the clerk's office with the original

Notice to Quit, at least 4 (four) days before the return date on the Summons. When filing these papers, you must pay an entry fee to the clerk. As of the date of printing, this fee is $175.00. Payment must be made at the time of filing by cash or check payable to Clerk, Superior Court.

Always have the case name and return date available when inquiring about your case docket number, if it has previously been given to you.

DEFAULT JUDGMENTS

The defendant has 2 (two) full days after the return date to file an Appearance in the case to contest the eviction. If no Appearance is filed by the third day after the return date, you may request a Default Judgment for Failure to Appear. (See JD-HM-9 on page 19) In order to obtain the Default Judgment for Failure to Appear, you must personally come to the clerk's office to file a Motion for Default Judgment for Failure to Appear and a Military Affidavit. The office will supply you with this form. You must mail a copy of this Motion to the defendant and file the original with the court. Keep 1 (one) copy for your records and make a note of the case docket number. If no appearance is filed and all papers are in order, a judge will enter a Default Judgment in your favor without the necessity of a hearing. You will be notified by mail; therefore, please do not call the clerk's office.

If, however, the defendant does file an Appearance but no Response to your Complaint (Pleading), you should personally come to the clerk's office and file a Motion for Default Judgment for Failure to Plead. (See JD-HM-10 on page 20) The clerk will provide you with this form. This Motion will require that the defendant file some type of Response to your Complaint within 3 (three) days, not counting Sundays and holidays, after the Motion is filed with the clerk's office. A copy of the Motion must be mailed to the defendant or the defendant's attorney, if there is one, and the original must be filed with the court. Keep 1 (one) copy for your records and make a note of the case docket number. If no Pleading is filed within this 3 (three)-day period and all papers are in order, a judge will enter a Default Judgment without the necessity of a hearing. You will be notified by mail; therefore, please do not call the clerk's office.

In all cases in which the defendant has an attorney to represent him or her, all court documents must be sent to the attorney and not to the defendant.

TRIALS

If the defendant files a Response (Pleading), you will receive a copy. If the Pleading is an Answer and Special Defense(s), you must file with the clerk a Reply to the Special Defense(s), and mail a copy to the defendant or the defendant's attorney. A form for the Reply is available at the clerk's office. A trial will then be scheduled at which time the case may be heard by a judge. You will be notified of the date and time of the hearing by mail. Be on time and bring all witnesses, receipts, and related documents to the hearing. This is very important or you may lose your case for lack of proof. If a witness will not come to court voluntarily, you may apply for a subpoena at the clerk's office at least 2 (two) days before the scheduled hearing date. If a judge grants the application, a subpoena will be issued. The subpoena must be served on your witness at least 18 (eighteen) hours before your hearing date and time. The state marshal will charge you a fee to serve the subpoena.

On the day of the trial, your case will be called by the courtroom clerk. When your case is called, be sure to tell the clerk that you are present. After your case is called, you will meet with a Housing Mediator, who is a specially trained mediator, who will discuss the case with you and the defendant. The Housing Mediator will assist you and the defendant in working out a fair settlement. If you and the defendant agree on a settlement, the agreement will be reviewed by the judge. If it is approved by the judge, it will be entered on the record as a "Stipulated Judgment." You will be given a copy of this, which you should be sure to keep.

You are under no obligation to settle your case. If you do not work out an agreement, there will be a trial. The judge will hear the case and make a decision based on all of the evidence. The judge will either announce the decision in court or you will be notified by mail.

EXECUTION

If a judgment for immediate possession is entered in your favor, either by default or after a hearing, the defendant has a 5 (five)-day Stay of Execution, not counting intervening Sundays, legal holidays, or the date of judgment.

However, in cases of nonpayment only, the defendant can apply to the court for up to an additional 3 (three) months in which to stay, if the full amount of the back rent and/or use and occupancy is paid to the court within 5 (five) days of judgment, and an Application for a Stay of Execution is filed. In cases of termination of lease by lapse of time, the defendant can file an Application for Stay of Execution for up to an additional 6 (six) months from the date of judgment. A hearing will be scheduled to establish the actual amount of time the defendant can stay, if any, and the conditions, if any. You will be notified by mail of the date and time of the hearing on the Application for a Stay of Execution.

If the defendant has not vacated the premises after the 5 (five) full days expire or applied for an additional Stay, as outlined above, you may obtain from the clerk's office a Summary Process Execution. (See JD-HM-2 on page 21) The Execution must be completed by you and given to the clerk for signature. After the Execution is returned to you, you must give it to a state marshal for service on the defendant. The Execution informs the defendant that they must vacate the premises within a minimum of 24 (twenty-four) hours or be physically removed from the premises and if the defendant does not move the defendant's possessions and personal effects they will be removed by the marshal and stored at the defendant's expense. If the defendant does not claim those belongings, they may be sold by the town.

In order to obtain an Execution in cases in which a payment condition of a stipulated judgment has been violated, you must file an Affidavit of Non-Compliance, available at the clerk's office, stating exactly which payment has not been made, along with a completed Execution form. (See JD-HM-22 on page 22) You must immediately mail a copy of the Affidavit to the defendant or the defendant's attorney. An Execution will not issue until the third business day after the filing of the Affidavit.

If the defendant files an Objection, a hearing will be scheduled. If no Objection is filed, an Execution will be signed and issued to you at the appropriate time.

In those cases in which a condition of a stipulated judgment other than a payment term has been violated, an Affidavit must be filed stating the condition which has been violated. A hearing before the judge will be scheduled. The judge will decide whether an Execution should be issued. An Execution may only issue for six months from the date of judgment or from the termination date of a court-approved Stay of Execution, whichever is later.

LAWYER REFERRAL SERVICE

If you feel you need additional assistance, legal advice or representation, you should consult your attorney. You may obtain an attorney by contacting a Lawyer Referral Service office. (See Appendix V for a listing of Lawyer Referral Service offices.)

Note:

1. If there is more than 1 (one) plaintiff, all plaintiffs may be required to sign Pleadings and to appear for all proceedings.
2. Only the clerk's offices of the Housing Sessions are authorized by C.G.S. §51-52(d) to assist parties representing themselves (pro se parties).

Notice To Each Defendant

1. You are being sued for possession of the premises you occupy.
2. This paper is a Summons in a summary process (eviction) action.
3. The Complaint attached to these papers states the grounds for eviction (possession) claimed by the plaintiff.
4. To respond to this Summons, or to be notified of further proceedings, you or your attorney must file a form called an "Appearance" with the Clerk at the above Court address on or before the second day after the above Return Date.
5. If you or your attorney do not file a written "Appearance" form on time, a judgment may be entered against you by default. If that happens, the plaintiff will have the right to evict you from the premises.
6. You can get the "Appearance" form at the Court address above or on-line at www.jud.ct.gov.
7. Each court location will also give you an instructions pamphlet (JDP-HM-15) explaining the summary process (eviction) action and with an "Answer" form (JD-HM-5) so that you may file an answer to the plaintiff's claims against you. You can also get the pamphlet and Answer form on-line at www.jud.ct.gov.
8. If you have questions about the Summons and Complaint, you should talk to an attorney promptly. The Clerk of Court is not allowed to give advice on legal questions; however, in Housing Session locations only, the clerk can give procedural assistance to all self-represented parties.

Instructions to Plaintiff (Landlord)

1. Attach this complaint to the Summons, form JD-HM-32, and follow the instructions on that form.
2. Attach the original Notice to Quit, form JD-HM-7, to this complaint.
3. If there is a written lease, do not attach a copy of the lease to this complaint. If you want to make the lease a part of your complaint, refer to the lease as an exhibit (for example "Exhibit A") and file it separately with the court no later than the return date. Serve a copy of the exhibit upon each party who appears in this matter at the first court session of the matter or no later than seven days after receipt of notice of the appearance of the party, whichever is earlier. Service must be made as provided in Sections 10-12 through 10-17 of the Practice Book.

TO: Any Proper State Marshal

By the authority of the State of Connecticut, you are commanded to give the Plaintiff(s) possession of the premises above, by putting the Defendant(s) and any other Occupant(s) bound by the judgment out of possession; if the Defendant(s) and such other Occupant(s) have not removed all their possessions and personal effects then you may remove them and deliver them to the place of storage designated by the chief executive officer of the town; prior to removal you must give the chief executive officer of the town 24 hours notice of the eviction, stating the date, time and address of the eviction as well as a general description, if known, of the types and amount of property to be removed from the premises and delivered to the designated place of storage. Prior to giving notice to the chief executive officer you must use reasonable efforts to locate and notify the Defendant(s) and any other Occupant(s) bound by the judgment of the date and time the eviction is to take place and the possibility of a sale of their possessions pursuant to section 47a-42 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

Make service of a true copy upon each defendant and occupant bound by the judgment and due return within 60 days of the date hereof.

Notice To Defendant(s) (Tenant(s) and/or Occupant(s))

(To be completed by State Marshal)

Your landlord (the plaintiff) has won a judgment against you in this eviction case giving the landlord possession of the premises. This means that you must move out of the premises at the address above by this date.

If you think you have a right to stay in the premises, you should contact an attorney immediately.

If you do not move out by that date, this paper, which does not have to be handed to you personally, gives a State Marshal the legal right to move your possessions and personal effects out of the premises and deliver them to the place of storage designated by the chief executive officer of the town.

If you do not move your possessions and personal effects on or before

Date _____	At (Time) _____ M.

I will return to move your possessions and personal effects out of the premises and store them. Your possessions and personal effects will be stored at:

You may call:

_____ to reclaim any of those possessions and personal effects and to arrange to have them given back to you. (If your possessions and personal effects are removed and stored and you do not reclaim them and pay the expense of storage within 15 days, then they may be sold by the town under section 47a-42 of the Connecticut General Statutes.)

Return of Service

By virtue of the foregoing execution,

On _____	At (Time) _____ M.
----------	--------------------

- I notified the Defendant(s) and Occupant(s).
 I used reasonable efforts to locate the Defendant(s) and Occupant(s) but was unable to notify the following:

Thereafter I notified the chief executive officer of the town where the premises are situated,

On _____	At (Time) _____ M.

that the eviction of the Defendant's(s) and Occupant's(s) possessions and personal effects would take place,

On _____	At (Time) _____ M.

and I further advised said chief executive officer, so far as known of the general description, types and amount of the property to be removed from said premises.

On _____	At (Time) _____ M.

And afterwards, the Defendant's(s) and Occupant's(s) possessions,

- had been removed.
 were removed by me and stored and I put the Plaintiff(s) in possession of said premises.
