NOTICE

NOTICE OF PILOT PROGRAM

Until further notice, beginning with the family short calendar of January 3, 2012, the Stamford family short calendar will be published one week earlier with the marking period as noted below on the same week as publication of the calendar.

FAMILY MATTERS

***NEW: PLEASE SEE INFORMATION REGARDING FAMILY DISCOVERY AND DEPOSITION MOTIONS ON THE LAST COLUMN OF THIS NOTICE*****

MARKING PROCEDURES

Matters printed on the short calendar must be marked "READY" to be considered by the Court.

Short calendar markings may be made from 9:00 in the morning on the Tuesday of the week the short calendar is published (approximately two weeks prior to the calendar date) to 4:00 in the afternoon of the Thursday of that same week.

If a calendar is canceled due to unexpected events,

TABLE OF CONTENTS

NOTICE (continued from Column 1)

parties may reclaim their motions to the next available calendar. If, however, the matter needs immediate action by the court, the party may apply for permission to schedule an earlier hearing date with the court.

Note: all citations must be re-issued unless the court orders otherwise.

Markings by attorneys must be made electronically through E-Services (www.jud.ct.gov). Self-represented (pro se) parties and attorneys who have obtained an exclusion from E-Services requirements must submit markings by calling 203-965-5333.

Note: Fax markings are not accepted.

Counsel and self-represented parties must give timely notice of markings to all self-represented parties and counsel of record. The court may impose sanctions if notice is not given.

The following information must be given when making a telephone marking:

- The position of the case on the calendar
- The name and docket number of the case
- The entry number and title of motion
- The full name of the person making the marking and the law firm name, if applicable
- Confirmation that counsel and self represented parties of record have been notified of the marking

For matters marked "READY," counsel and self-represented parties of record must come to court on the day of the calendar. The court will attempt to hear cases in which a party is represented by a volunteer (pro bono) attorney first.

NEW: FAMILY DISCOVERY AND DEPOSITION MOTIONS - REVISED PRACTICE BOOK SECTION 25-34

Starting August 15, 2011, motions filed pertaining to discovery or deposition in family matters pursuant to Chapter 13 of the Connecticut Practice Book are nonarguable. If you are asking the court to rule on any such motion, you must mark it ready in accordance with the marking procedures set forth in this notice. The motion will be ruled on without hearing, unless the court has determined that oral argument or the presentation of testimony is necessary, in which case all appearing parties will be notified. All other family short calendar matters remain arguable.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information is available on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/StandOrders> and forms are available on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.jud2.ct.gov/webforms>.

Note: In accordance with the federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

By Order of the Court.
