

File a Reclaim Electronically

If you are the person who filed a new civil, family, housing or small claims case electronically in the Superior Court or small claims session (plaintiff), you will have electronic (on-line) access to the case right away. If you are the plaintiff in any existing e-filable case or if you are filing a new case on paper, or if you are the person who is being sued (defendant), you must ask the Clerk to give you electronic access to the case. (See the section on requesting electronic access.) Once you have electronic access to the case, you can file your motion or other pleading on-line. If you do not have electronic access to your case, you can only file your motion or other pleading on paper with the clerk of the court where your case is located.

Note: You can find a list of the types of cases on which you can and cannot file on-line in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. If the case is an existing case, you can also check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

The reclaim form (JD-CL-6) is a system-populated form. That form is a document that the e-filing system fills out for you based upon the information that is already in the e-filing system, such as the name, case docket number and the names of appearing parties. You must give some additional information and then the system will show you the completed form to look over and e-file. E-filing has six system-populated forms: appearances, certificates of closed pleadings, jury claims, motions for continuance, reclaims, and withdrawals of all kinds, except withdrawals of appearance.

If the information you provided when you enrolled in E-Services has changed, you will be able to change what is automatically filled out on the reclaim form. You should also change it on your E-Services account.

Here is a checklist of what you must do to file a reclaim on-line.

To file a reclaim on-line, you must:

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password

You can ask for electronic access to your files so you can file documents, look at documents filed in your case, and mark your civil short calendar matters on-line in almost all civil cases. You cannot file or look at documents or mark short calendar matters on-line in divorce, child support and child custody cases yet.

Log out of E-Services when you have finished what you are doing to protect your privacy. If you don't use the mouse or the keyboard for 30 minutes, the system will show a message asking you if you want to log off or stay logged in. If you don't pick either choice, the system logs you out after 60 seconds. If you are in the middle of filing something and the system logs you out, you will lose any information you have entered, and you will have to start your filing from the beginning.

If the case name and docket number do not appear in your list of cases on this page,

The cases listed on this page are the cases that you have requested electronic access to or cases for which your electronic access has already been approved. If you have not requested and been approved for electronic access to a case, you cannot file on-line in that case.

To ask for electronic access to a case, you must go to the case detail page of the case by entering the docket number or a party name. On the case detail page, you must select Request Electronic Access, fill out and print the request form and take the form and an acceptable form of photo identification to the clerk's office at the court where the case is located.

You can get more information about requesting electronic access on the E-Services Welcome page under the Self-represented Parties tab or in the E-Filing Manual for Civil, Family, Housing and Small Claims Matters – A Guide for Self-Represented Parties.

8. Click the docket number of the case shown in the list at the bottom of the page to go to the case detail page

The screenshot shows the "State of Connecticut Judicial Branch Superior Court E-Filing" interface. At the top, there is a header with the court name and logo. Below the header, the case details are displayed: Case Number HHB-FA14-6023671-S, Case Name PETRIE, LAURA M. v. PETRIE, ROBERT S., Case Type F00, File Date 08/27/2014, and Return Date 09/16/2014. Instructions: Check the box next to the motion or objection that you want to reclaim for the short calendar. You can reclaim a maximum of eight (8) motions or objection at one time. You cannot reclaim a document that shows "not claimable" instead of a checkbox. You cannot reclaim a motion or objection that shows "Claimed to Calendar" instead of a checkbox because it has already been scheduled on a future short calendar.

After you select the motion or objection, check one or more of the boxes below the list of documents to tell the court whether the motion or objection is

- a Superior Court matter;
- a family support magistrate matter; and
- if it is assigned for trial.

You must then select "Continue" to complete the reclaim. If you do not want to file the reclaim, select "Cancel" to return to the case detail page for the case.

If this is the correct case, select motion(s) to claim/reclaim below.
 If this is incorrect, select "Cancel" to return to the Case Detail page.

12. Check the box next to the entry number and name of the item that you want to reclaim.

Note: You can't reclaim some documents that you file with the court. If the Judge does not need to take any action on the document, it does not go on a short calendar, and you can't reclaim it. For example, an answer, memorandum of law or a brief does not go on the short calendar. They are in the court file, but the Judge does not have to enter an order on them. They appear on this list but, you will see "Not Claimable" next to them instead of a checkbox. If a motion or objection is already on a short calendar for a future date, you will see "Claimed to Calendar" next to it. You cannot reclaim something that is already on the short calendar.

13. Click in the appropriate circle to say whether the matter being reclaimed is:

- a Superior Court matter (other than Family Support Magistrate Matters); or
- a Family Support Magistrate matter
