

Mark Motions or Objections on the Short Calendar On-line

You can mark short calendar matters in your civil cases or in your e-filable family cases if you have enrolled in E-Services, filed an appearance and been approved for electronic access to your cases. You cannot mark short calendar matters in family cases that are not e-filable. Note: You can find a list of the types of cases that are e-filable in the revised Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services. On an existing case, you can check the docket number to know if the case is e-filable (paperless). If the number that follows the year is a 5 or a 6, the case is e-filable (paperless). For example, FBT CV 16 6051245 or HHD FA 15 5061789 are paperless.

- You must follow the procedures shown in the Notice section of the short calendar and in the Civil or Family Short Calendar Standing Orders to mark motions or objections.
- You can only mark motions or objections on the short calendar during the specific times (marking periods) shown in the Civil or Family Short Calendar Standing Orders. Note: Marking periods can change if there is a state holiday on a weekday. Check the standing orders if there is a state holiday.

Here is a checklist of what you must do to mark your short calendar motions or objections on-line.

To mark your short calendar motions or objections on-line on your case

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password
2. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password to request electronic access to your case
3. Be approved for electronic access by the clerk of the court
4. Tell other parties how you are marking the motions or objections
5. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password
6. Choose Civil/Family/Housing Menu from the E-Services home page
7. Choose Markings Entry under Short Calendars on the Civil/Family Menu page

You can ask for electronic access to your files so you can file documents, look at documents filed in your case, and mark your civil short calendar matters on-line in almost all civil cases. You cannot file or look at documents or mark short calendar matters on-line in divorce, child support and child custody cases yet.

You can look at a list on this page of (1) cases you have requested electronic access to and (2) cases you have been given electronic access to.

You can find out more about the links on the left side of the page by clicking here.

Log out of E-Services when you have finished what you are doing to protect your privacy. If you don't use the mouse or the keyboard for 30 minutes, the system will show a message asking you if you want to log off or stay logged in. If you don't pick either choice, the system logs you out after 60 seconds. If you are in the middle of filing something and the system logs you out, you will lose any information you have entered, and you will have to start your filing from the beginning.

7. Select the marking code for each motion or objection you want to mark by clicking in one of the circles to the right of the motion or objection you are marking. "No change" will be selected for each motion or objection any time you come to this page, even if a motion or objection has been marked before.
 - The marking codes for civil arguable (Arg) motions or objections are Ready, Take Papers, or Off.
 - The marking codes for civil non-arguable matters (N/A), except for property matters, are Take Papers or Off.
 - The marking codes for civil non-arguable matters (N/A) in property cases only are Ready, Take Papers, or Off.
 - The marking codes for family motions or objections are Ready or Off.

If you do not know which marking to choose, you can find more information about the choices in the Procedures and Technical Standards for E-Services, on the short calendar notices, or in the Short Calendar and the Markings Process Quick Card.

Note: Do not choose "Take Papers" to mark a civil motion or objection that appears on a calendar if a request for argument has been granted on a non-arguable motion or if the Court has granted or required argument on any other matter.

8. Check the box next to the certification.

Note: To change a marking you have entered, you can log in to E-Services at any time during the marking period and change the marking. Be sure to tell other self-represented parties and attorneys about any changes you make.

If you want to look at the markings that have been made electronically in a certain case or on short calendars on a certain date in cases in which you have appeared and been approved for electronic access, you can choose Markings History from the Civil/Family/Housing Menu page.

Instructions on looking at short calendar markings are on the next page of these instructions.

Look at Markings Made On-line

Short Calendars Markings History lets you look at case information and markings made electronically by you, attorneys or other self-represented parties in any civil or family case in which you have appeared and been approved for electronic access. If a marking on a motion or objection was made by telephone, it will not be shown as part of the Short Calendars Markings History. If no electronic markings were made by anyone in a case, the case will not be shown in the list.

1. Log in to E-Services from the Branch website at: <https://eservices.jud.ct.gov/login.aspx>.

2. Choose Civil/Family/Housing Menu from the E-Services menu

3. Choose Short Calendar Markings History from the Civil/Family/Housing Menu page.
