2018 Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society Law Day: Official Contest Rules

Qualified Participants: The Law Day Contest is open to students, student groups, and classes attending a public or private high school, or being home schooled, within Connecticut and in grades 9-12 or the equivalent.

Background: The Law Day Contest asks participants to explore the importance of separation of powers between the three equal branches of government, executive, legislative and judicial, to democracy and individual freedoms.

Sponsors: The 2018 Law Day Contest is sponsored by the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society and the Contest prizes are made possible through the generous donations by the Society's supporters.

Contest Eligibility Requirements: Qualified participants are allowed enter a submission under any one or more of three categories. Each submission may only be submitted in one category: The categories are:

1. ART: Two-dimensional art pieces are not to exceed 11"x17" (including, but not limited to, drawings, paintings, photographs, comics, etc.).
2. WRITTEN: Written pieces limited to 250 words (including, but not limited to, short story, essay, poetry, etc.).
3. VIDEO: Presentation limited to 3 minutes (including but not limited to video art, music, dance, drama/skit, etc.). Videos to be submitted in either .mpg or .wmv format.

Submissions should reflect on the separation of powers as fundamental to our constitutional purpose of freedom in a democracy. Criteria: the submissions will be evaluated on originality, quality, creativity and clarity of expression of the theme. Each submission must be accompanied by a signed Entry Form. All Qualified Participants under the age of 18 years must have their parent or legal guardian sign the Parental Permission Release on the Entry Form. Any and all participants must assent to the republication, reproduction, or any other use of the submissions and the likenesses and personas contained therein by the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society and must sign the applicable release. Additionally, each Law Day Contest Entry Form must certify the submission is the original work of the Qualified Participant(s). Submissions are subject to verification for compliance with these Rules. Qualified Participants are not limited to one entry, but will only be eligible to win one prize.

Group Submissions: Two or more Qualified Participants may submit a group entry. Qualified Participants need not be from the same school or class. However, all students must meet Contest Eligibility Requirements and must complete the Law Day Contest Entry Form with Parental Permission.

Steps to Enter: Qualified Participants must:

1. Agree to the contest Rules. To do so, you may find the contest Entry Form and a copy of the contest Rules at www.jud.ct.gov/historicalsociety/. All submissions must be accompanied by a signed and completed Law Day Contest Entry Form signed by participants or parent/guardian as applicable.
2. Deliver the contest piece email or mail, with the completed Entry Form, to:

Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society
P.O. Box 230639
Hartford, CT 06123-0639
3. Contest entries will be accepted beginning today. To be eligible for prizes, all entries must be received by April 6, 2018.

Contest Description:

1. Selection of winners will be based on originality, creativity, adherence to the theme, and overall quality.
2. The Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society Law Day Contest Committee will select no more than one winner for each of the three categories from among the Eligible Entries that meet minimum quality standards and best reflect the theme. Winners will be announced on or about April 13, 2017 and posted on the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society website.

Contest Prizes: One winner for each category will receive a prize with a value of $500 (to an individual or a team). The winners will be recognized at the Law Day celebration to be held on May 1, 2018 at the Connecticut Supreme Court, Hartford, where the winners will have the opportunity to meet the Chief Justice and Justices of the Connecticut Supreme Court.
