An Opportunity for New and Experienced Attorneys

Whether you are beginning to practice law or are expanding your legal horizons, we are offering a program that will introduce you to the wealth of resources and services that are available at the Connecticut Judicial Branch Courthouses. This fall, the program is being offered in two locations; it includes practical information as well as legal research information which you will find invaluable in your practice of law in the Connecticut Courts. We are pleased to welcome you to our courthouses and look forward to seeing you at one of the sessions.

Very truly yours,

Barbara M. Quinn

Chief Court Administrator

Connecticut Legal Research and Judicial Branch Law Library Services

- What are the key publications needed for practicing law in Connecticut?
- What Connecticut legal publications are available electronically, in print, or both?
- What do you mean it's not all on the web?

This program looks at specific legal resources needed for practice in Connecticut. The basic bibliographic collection needed to effectively practice civil, criminal, family and property law will be reviewed, including various sources for primary and secondary legal information, the variety of formats, and their strengths and weaknesses. Learn about the valuable resources available at the Judicial Branch Law Libraries and the range of services our staff can provide to assist you in your practice. Discover information resources accessible in our facilities and those from your own computer.

Court Service Centers

This session will provide you with information about Court Service Centers and Public Information Desks, which are court-based facilities that provide attorneys, self-represented parties and members of the public with a variety of resources, such as statewide calendar and docket information, court forms, and Judicial Branch publications.

E-Services and Web-Based Court Information

- How do you update your information with the Statewide Grievance Committee?
- How do you file a complaint or a jury claim electronically?
- What if you cannot remember the date of your pretrial in that Hartford case?

This session will provide you with the answers to these and many other questions. At this session, you will also learn the basics of electronic filing of case initiations and documents and obtain an overview of the wide range of web-based information and interactive services available on the Judicial Branch website www.jud.ct.gov.

Foreclosure Mediation Program

In this session, learn about the Foreclosure Mediation Program. Its purpose is to assist the homeowner/ borrower whose one-to-four, owner-occupied, primary residential property is the subject of a mortgage foreclosure action. Learn how homeowners and their lenders meet with a Judicial Branch mediator with the goal of reaching a fair, voluntary, negotiated agreement where foreclosure is avoided.
