

Fall Meeting of the Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society.

Tuesday, October 23, 2019

The Hartford Club at 46 Prospect Street, Hartford

Refreshments at 5:30 p.m. – Program begins at 6:15 p.m.

Speaker: Paul DeForest Hicks, Esq., The Litchfield Law School: Guiding The New Nation

At the Fall meeting, Attorney Paul DeForest Hicks will discuss his book THE LITCHFIELD LAW SCHOOL: GUIDING THE NEW NATION. Attorney Hicks, a graduate of Harvard Law School, practiced law in Denver, Colorado, before returning to New York where he joined J.P. Morgan. He retired thirty years later as the managing director and took on a third career as a writer. In THE LITCHFIELD LAW SCHOOL, Hicks makes the case that the law school provided the most innovative and successful legal education for the country from 1784 to 1833. Founder Tapping Reeve took a national rather than a state perspective on the evolving principles of American common law.

Members of the Board hope that you will join us at what is sure to be an interesting and informative program. There is no charge to attend.
