

At its meeting on October 26, 2018, the Connecticut Bar Examining Committee adopted the following revisions to its Regulations.

ARTICLE III

ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION AND ADMISSION BY TRANSFER OF A UNIFORM BAR EXAMINATION SCORE

....

Art. III-3.

An applicant who withdraws his or her application to take the bar examination at least 30 days prior to the examination shall be entitled to a fee credit of ~~$125~~ seventy-five percent of the application fee paid by the applicant. Withdrawals for medical reasons accompanied by a doctor's certificate shall be entitled to a fee credit of ~~$125~~ seventy-five percent of the application fee paid by the applicant if received within ten days after the examination. In extraordinary circumstances, the Chair, or the Chair's designee, shall have the discretion to grant a credit of up to one hundred percent. In order to demonstrate extraordinary circumstances, the applicant must present evidence of exigent circumstances, such as serious illness or death in the family. All such requests related to exigent circumstances for a fee credit must be in writing and accompanied by appropriate supporting documentation, and must be received by the administrative director within thirty days after the examination. Any fee credits to which a withdrawing applicant may be entitled must be applied toward either of the next two succeeding examinations. All withdrawals must be in writing, addressed to the administrative director and are effective on the date received by the administrative director. This regulation shall be effective upon adoption and shall apply for all applicants beginning with the July 2018 examination.
