Good Morning,

I am sending you this email against what is being proposed for the bail bonds industry in our great state of Connecticut. By reducing the amount to the court from 10% to 7% is just a bad idea. This reduction is allowing accused criminals an even larger discount on getting out of jail. At 7% criminals are being given an instant 93% discount on the total bail. Who is responsible if the defendant does not show up for court? This bail reform being proposed in Connecticut is bad and it's not good for the citizens of this state.

Yours truly,

Dennis Perkins
