

Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society's Thirteenth Annual Dinner

Thursday, April 19, 2018 • The New Haven Lawn Club

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Jeffrey Rosen

Since 2013, Jeffrey Rosen has been the President and Chief Executive Officer of the National Constitution Center, a nonpartisan nonprofit organization whose mission is to educate the public about the United States Constitution. The Center is located near Independence Hall in Philadelphia and engages millions of individuals as an interactive museum, national town hall, and a provider of nonpartisan resources for civic education. Rosen has developed the Center's Interactive Constitution, which brings together conservative and liberal legal scholars to discuss areas of agreement and disagreement about every clause of the Constitution. He also is a professor of law at The George Washington University School of Law. His essays and commentaries have appeared in The Atlantic, New York Times Magazine, New Republic, and The New Yorker. He has authored six books, most recently a biography of William Howard Taft, published as part of The American Presidents Series. Rosen is a graduate of Harvard College, Oxford University, where he was a Marshall Scholar, and Yale Law School.
