

CONNECTICUT SUPREME COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Fall Meeting
Wednesday, October 24, 2018
Refreshments 5:30 p.m. — Program 6:15 p.m.

The Hartford Club
46 Prospect Street, Hartford

Jeanette Zaragoza De León
PhD Visiting Research Scholar, Yale Divinity School

Lessons from the Amistad:
Interpreting, Litigation Strategies, and Solidarity

Ms. De León, a graduate of Lesley College, holds a Master of Divinity from Pacific School of Religion, Master of Arts in Translation from University of Puerto Rico, and Master of Arts in Translation and Interpretation Studies Research from Universitat Jaume, Valencia, Spain. She is a PhD candidate in Applied Languages, Literature and Translation from Universitate Juame. This fall Ms. De León will defend her dissertation entitled “The Critical Translation and Interpreting Stories of the Amistad Case.” She is a certified Spanish-English court interpreter.

Remarks by Chief Justice Richard A. Robinson, member of Discovering Amistad’s National Advisory Council.

The Amistad, a video created by students of Bristow Middle School.

The event is open to all without charge.