

The six operating Superior Courts are now accepting non-priority 1 civil and family filings.

Lock boxes have been placed in the lobby area of the six open Superior Court courthouses, where litigants may leave their documents.

The box is for filing non-urgent matters.

Please include contact information if it is not already on your document(s).

No cash should be placed in this box.

If a fee is required for your filing, you may attach a check or money order.

Do NOT use this box if you are filing a:

- Restraining Order (Relief From Abuse)
- Civil Protection Order
- Ex Parte Motion
