

New Jury Features Enhance Services to Public

The Judicial Branch has recently added two features to provide improved options for individuals interacting with Jury Administration. It is anticipated that both options will simplify the process for the public.

First, people who have received a jury summons may now change their name and/or address online by logging onto <http://www.jud2.ct.gov/JuryWeb/JurorLogin.aspx?m=chgaddress>.

“With this option, we hope that people will find it more convenient to be able to go online and update their information without having to call, especially when we are experiencing high call volume,” Jury Administrator Esther Harris said. “In addition, this feature can be accessed through a mobile smart phone.”

The second enhancement involves medical disqualification from jury service. A new medical disqualification form is now available online and can be downloaded and given to a medical provider to complete. It then may be emailed, faxed or mailed back to Jury Administration. The new form is on the following web pages:

- The “jurors” tab on the Branch’s homepage, www.jud.ct.gov
- The Jury Administration homepage, <http://www.jud.ct.gov/jury/default.htm>
- The Answer Your Jury Summons webpage, <http://www.jud.ct.gov/jury/answer.htm>

“This form will streamline the information that must be provided and also, we hope, reduce the amount of paperwork, both for the person seeking the disqualification and the medical provider,” Ms. Harris added.
