B.) Update on Client Security Fund Fee Credit Card Payments

Attorney Blanchard provided the committee with an update on efforts to provide attorneys with the option of paying the annual client security fund fee online using a credit card. While the Judicial Branch's Information Technology unit has recently been able to make resources available to work on the credit card payment project, it will not be completed in time for the main collection period which occurs in May and June. However, it is anticipated that the credit card option will be available later this year.
