

Advisory Commission on
Wrongful Convictions
Agenda
April 6, 2006

Attorney Conference Room
Supreme Court Building

AGENDA

- I. Welcome - Judge William J. Lavery, Chief Court Administrator
- II. Approval of minutes from the November 9, 2005, meeting
- III. Brief review of State v. Seri, and an update on the pending civil case
- IV. Report by students from the University of New Haven regarding research that has been conducted on whether having officers stand behind the witness improves eyewitness identification
- V. Report by University of New Haven students on research conducted on the Milgaard, Anderson and Zimmerman cases

The report will contain the following:

 - a) a list of the areas where matters could have been handled better
 - b) a list each of the personnel who bore any responsibility for each matter that could have been handled better
 - c) an analysis of the existing checks and balances in the system such as employment consequences, professional liability insurance and professional discipline
- VI. Discussion of wrongful conviction in a shaking baby case and short video
- VII. Other issues
- VIII. Scheduling of next meeting
- VIII. Adjournment