

E-filing in Housing Cases

Beginning October 1, 2015, e-filing in newly-filed housing matters in Danbury, Meriden, Middlesex, New London at Norwich and Tolland will be available. Case initiation documents and all other motions, pleadings or documents filed in the newly-filed housing case of the following types are e-filable: Summary Process (H00); Return of Security Deposit (H10); Rent and/or Damages (H12); Housing – Administrative Appeals (H50); Housing – Municipality Enforcement (H60); and Housing – All Other (H90). After cases of the following types have been initiated on paper, subsequent motions, pleadings and documents can be filed electronically: Housing – Housing Code Enforcement (H20); Housing – Entry & Detainer (H30) and Housing – Audita Querela/Injunction (H40). E-filing is mandatory for attorneys and law firms without an exclusion from E-Services requirements and optional for self-represented parties.

To assist attorneys, paralegals, and legal support staff in preparing for mandatory e-filing, e-filing training will be held on the following dates in the court locations listed below:

September 14, 2015 – 1:00 PM

Danbury Judicial District
146 White Street
Danbury, CT

September 15, 2015 – 1:00 PM

Middlesex Judicial District
1 Court Street – Courtroom 3A
Middletown, CT

September 23, 2015 – 2:00 PM

Tolland Judicial District
69 Brooklyn Street, Courtroom C
Rockville, CT

Questions? Email Eservices@jud.ct.gov