

Connecticut Judicial Branch

---

E-filing in Geographical Area Location Housing Matters

Beginning January 1, 2017, newly-initiated housing matters formerly filed on paper in the Geographical Area locations of G.A. 5 at Derby, G.A. 18 at Bantam, G.A. 10 at New London, G.A. 11 at Danielson, must now be filed electronically in the Judicial Districts of Ansonia/Milford in Milford, Litchfield in Torrington, New London in New London and Windham in Putnam. E-filing in e-filable cases is mandatory for attorneys and law firms without an exclusion from electronic services requirements and optional for self-represented parties. E-filing of housing matters in the Housing Sessions became mandatory in March of 2016, and in all other judicial districts in October, 2015.

Case initiation documents and all other motions, pleadings or documents filed in the following housing case types are e-filable: Summary Process (H00); Return of Security Deposit (H10); Rent and/or Damages (H12); Housing – Administrative Appeals (H50); Housing – Municipality Enforcement (H60); Housing – Bed Bug Infestation (H70), and Housing – All Other (H90).

Case initiation document in the following case types are filed on paper, but subsequent motions, pleadings and documents are e-filable: Housing – Housing Code Enforcement (H20); Housing – Entry & Detainer (H30); and Housing – Audita Querela/Injunction (H40).

For information on E-Services or e-filing, go to the Judicial Branch website (<http://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/E-Services/efile/>), or call Attorney Alice Mastrony at (860) 706-5321, the E-Services Support Line at (866) 765-4452 or email Eservices@jud.ct.gov.