

File a Motion or Pleading Electronically

If you have not enrolled in E-Services and requested access to your case yet, stop here. Before you can electronically file a Motion or Pleading in a case, you must have electronic access to your case and have filed an appearance.

Note: Certain documents cannot be filed electronically (on-line), such as a motion for prejudgment remedy, a motion to be made a party or to intervene, and any sealed or lodged documents. For a complete listing, please check the revised Procedures and Technical Standards of E-Services.

Below is a checklist of what you must do to file a document on-line.

To file a motion or other pleading on-line in a case, you must:

1. Enroll in E-Services to set up a User ID and password if you have not already enrolled
2. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password to request electronic access if you do not already have electronic access to your case
3. Be approved for electronic access
4. Prepare your document by typing it and converting it to a PDF document
5. Save the PDF document so you can find it when you are filing it on-line
6. Log in to E-Services with your User ID and password, if not already logged in
7. Go to Superior Court E-Filing
8. Go to the main page (case detail page) for your case
9. Choose E-file a Pleading or Motion from the Select Case Activity drop-down
10. Select the name for the motion you are filing
11. Upload your motion
12. Certify that you have delivered a copy of the motion to all other self-represented parties and attorneys of record
13. Sign your motion and certification by entering your User ID
14. Print the confirmation page that shows what you filed with the court
15. Send a copy of the motion to all other self-represented parties and attorneys of record
