

Twelfth Annual Meeting
CONNECTICUT SUPREME COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Wednesday, April 5, 2017
5:30 p.m.
New Haven Lawn Club

Speaker Philip Hamburger,
Maurice and Hilda Friedman Professor of Law, Columbia Law School.
"The Symsbury Case and the Limits of Consent"
Kirby's Reports 444 (1785)

Professor Hamburger writes on religious liberty, freedom of speech and the press, judicial office, administrative power, unconstitutional conditions, and other questions of constitutional law and its history. He also studies Baptist and Quaker history, early secularism, and the Ku Klux Klan.