Bank of America, N.A. v. Defelice (Memorandum Decision)	902
Barry A. v. Commissioner of Correction (Memorandum Decision)	903
Colby v. Colby	140
Dissolution of marriage; foreign judgment; motion for relief; motion to reargue; whether trial court abused its discretion in denying motion for relief from certain order of California court on ground that defendant failed to timely seek relief under California law; whether trial court's finding that there was no extrinsic fraud was clearly erroneous; whether trial court properly calculated postjudgment interest on basis of entire arrearage owed by defendant.
Creative Masonry & Chimney, LLC v. Johnson (Memorandum Decision)	901
Day v. Perkins Properties, LLC	33
Nuisance per se; whether trial court properly concluded as matter of law that defendants' operation of landscaping business in residential zone in violation of local zoning regulations constituted nuisance per se; whether violation of local ordinance was sufficient in itself to constitute nuisance per se.
Ferrari v. Johnson & Johnson, Inc.	152
Product liability; whether trial court properly granted motion for summary judgment as to design defect and breach of warranty claims; whether expert testimony was required to establish that product was defective and that alleged defect caused plaintiff's injury; whether ordinary consumer expectation test was applicable such that jury would not need expert testimony; whether trial court properly rendered summary judgment as to failure to warn claim on basis of learned intermediary doctrine.
Fisk v. Redding	99
Public nuisance; whether trial court abused its discretion in denying motion to set aside verdict; claim that jury's answers to special interrogatories in verdict form were inconsistent and could not be harmonized; claim that trial court erred in excluding evidence of subsequent remedial measures taken by defendant; whether evidence of remedial measures was inadmissible to prove defendant's liability for nuisance.
Flagstar Bank, FSB v. Kepple	312
Foreclosure; claim that plaintiff lacked standing to commence foreclosure action; whether defendants failed to rebut presumption that plaintiff, as holder of note, was rightful owner of underlying debt and, therefore, had standing to commence foreclosure action; whether statement by trial court at hearing constituted finding of fact.
Hilario Truck Center, LLC v. Kohn	443
Contracts; third-party beneficiary; whether plaintiff towing company that provided towing services to defendant insured motorist had standing as third-party beneficiary to bring direct breach of contract action against defendant insurance company that provided automobile liability coverage to motorist; whether plaintiff met its burden of demonstrating that trial court committed error by granting motion to dismiss.
In re Elizabeth B. (Memorandum Decision)	902
In re Probate Appeal of Knott	56
Probate appeal; whether trial court properly dismissed probate appeal as untimely on ground that substitute plaintiff did not appeal within time limits set by applicable statute (§ 45a-186 [a]); whether time limits for filing probate appeal were tolled by filing of application for waiver of fees pursuant to applicable statute (§ 45a-186c [b]).
Jackson v. Commissioner of Correction (Memorandum Decision)	901
Kaminski v. Poirot.	214
Legal malpractice; whether trial court properly granted motion for summary judgment; whether trial court properly determined that action was commenced beyond three year statute of limitations (§ 52-577) applicable to tort claims.

Lavy v. Lavy	186
Dissolution of marriage; whether trial court properly determined that plaintiff's failure to disclose certain assets on financial affidavit constituted material omissions that violated parties' separation agreement, which had been incorporated into dissolution judgment; claim that plaintiff's failure to disclose assets on financial affidavit was not material omission because defendant knew about them at time of dissolution judgment; claim that trial court inflated significance of omissions by comparing their value to total value of disclosed assets in same asset category; claim that trial court's discussion of relative value of assets rendered its determination that nondisclosures were material omissions legally or logically incorrect or unsupported by record; claim that trial court's finding that plaintiff knew about undisclosed bank account at time of dissolution judgment was clearly erroneous; whether trial court properly awarded defendant statutory (§ 37-3a [a]) prejudgment interest, where defendant raised claim for prejudgment interest in posthearing brief; claim that plaintiff was denied reasonable notice and opportunity to present defense regarding defendant's request for prejudgment interest; whether trial court violated rule of practice (§ 61-11) that provides for automatic appellate stay by awarding defendant postjudgment interest after plaintiff filed appeal; claim that § 37-3a was part of mechanism for statutory (§ 52-350f) enforcement of money judgment that is limited to execution or foreclosure of lien.
O'Brien-Kelley, Ltd. v. Goshen	420
Tax warrant; whether trial court properly granted motion for summary judgment; whether trial court properly concluded that defendant state marshal was entitled to statutory fee of 15 percent of tax, interest, fees and costs for service of alias tax warrant pursuant to statute (§ 12-162 [c]) to collect delinquent real estate tax and interest; claim that defendant was not entitled to 15 percent fee under § 12-162 because he did not execute on tax warrant or collect delinquent taxes, but merely mailed notice of tax warrant to plaintiff, which thereafter paid delinquent tax and interest to town directly before warrant was served.
Oudheusden v. Oudheusden	169
Dissolution of marriage; claim that trial court improperly double counted certain marital asset for purposes of property division and spousal support awards; claim that trial court abused its discretion in failing to make equitable orders in division of marital estate; whether trial court deprived defendant of means with which to comply with orders; whether trial court's award of nonmodifiable, lifetime alimony to plaintiff was supported by facts in evidence; whether plaintiff's testimony at trial precluded conclusion that her physical condition and age rendered her permanently incapable of earning any income from any type of employment.
Patrowicz v. Peloquin	124
Contracts; statute of frauds; whether trial court abused its discretion in denying request for continuance in order to subpoena witness; whether trial court committed reversible error by permitting material variance between amount of damages alleged in complaint and amount pursued at trial without requiring plaintiffs to file amended complaint; claim challenging trial court's determinations with respect to statute of frauds defense.
Reiner v. Reiner	268
Breach of fiduciary duty; enforcement of settlement agreement; claim that trial court, following hearing pursuant to Audubon Parking Associates Ltd. Partnership v. Barclay & Stubbs, Inc. (225 Conn. 804), improperly denied motion to enforce settlement agreement; whether trial court incorrectly concluded that settlement agreement was clear and unambiguous with respect to method for calculating buyout price of plaintiff's interests in certain real properties; whether settlement agreement that is not clear and unambiguous can be enforced summarily pursuant to Audubon Parking Associates Ltd. Partnership.
Roger R. v. Commissioner of Correction (Memorandum Decision)	902
Rosenthal Law Firm, LLC v. Cohen	284
Contracts; attorney's fees; discussion of Jones v. Ippoliti (52 Conn. App. 199); claim that trial court erred in concluding that plaintiff, as self-represented law firm, was precluded from recovering attorney's fees from defendant under parties' retainer agreement; claim that portion of Jones on which trial court relied in reaching its conclusion was dictum and, therefore, was improperly treated as binding precedent by trial court; whether this court could overrule precedent established by previous panel in Jones.

St. Denis-Lima v. St. Denis 296
Dissolution of marriage; whether trial court abused its discretion in ruling on motion to dismiss dissolution action without first holding evidentiary hearing; claim that certified and officially translated Brazilian document that plaintiff submitted to trial court established disputed jurisdictional fact that required evidentiary hearing on motion to dismiss; whether trial court's determination that there was final judgment of dissolution in Brazil was clearly erroneous; whether trial court abused its discretion in affording comity to dissolution judgment rendered by Brazilian court; claim that Brazilian judgment was contrary to public policy of Connecticut.

Santa Energy Corp. v. Santa (Memorandum Decision) 901

Stamford Hospital v. Schwartz. 63
Debt collection; action to collect debt, pursuant to statute (§ 46b-37 [b]), for medical services that plaintiff hospital rendered to defendants' minor child; special defenses; accord and satisfaction; reviewability of claims; whether record supported findings of attorney trial referee and trial court that defendants were indebted to plaintiff and that they exhibited bad faith throughout litigation; credibility of witnesses; whether referee acted within his authority to find by preponderance of evidence that defendants were untruthful; whether trial court's decision to award plaintiff attorney's fees was legally and logically correct.

State v. Dojnia 353
Assault of disabled person in second degree; unpreserved claim that statute (§ 53a-60b [a] [1]) prohibiting assault of disabled person in second degree is unconstitutionally vague as applied to defendant's violent conduct toward victim; whether statute (§ 1-1f [b]) that defines physical disability is ambiguous as to whether fibromyalgia constitutes physical disability; claim that state bore burden of proving beyond reasonable doubt that victim's physical disability was caused by any particular illness or injury and that diagnosis was medically accurate; whether evidence was sufficient to prove that victim had diagnosis of fibromyalgia; whether diagnosis of fibromyalgia satisfied physical disability requirement of § 53a-60b (a) (1); whether evidence was sufficient to prove that victim suffered from physical disability for purposes of § 53a-60b (a) (1); whether defendant was deprived of right to fair trial as result of prosecutor's comment during closing argument.

State v. Irizarry. 40
Assault in second degree; breach of peace in second degree; whether evidence was sufficient to support conviction of assault in second degree in violation of statute (§ 53a-60 [a] [1]); claim that state did not establish that defendant caused victim serious physical injury as defined by statute (§ 53a-3 [4]); claim that improper statement by prosecutor during closing argument to jury deprived defendant of constitutional right to fair trial; harmfulness of improper statement by prosecutor during closing argument to jury.

State v. Marcus H. 332
Assault in second degree with motor vehicle; risk of injury to child; reckless endangerment in first degree; reckless driving; operating motor vehicle while under influence of intoxicating liquor; interfering with officer; increasing speed in attempt to escape or elude police officer; application for public defender; claim that trial court violated defendant's constitutional right to counsel and, therefore, to due process, by denying application for appointment of public defender; whether trial court's implicit finding that defendant was not indigent was clearly erroneous; claim that trial court violated defendant's constitutional right to due process by failing to order, sua sponte, judicial marshal to remove defendant's shackles during trial; whether defendant demonstrated existence of constitutional violation that deprived him of fair trial; whether defendant's failure to object to being tried before jury in shackles was sufficient to negate compulsion necessary to establish constitutional violation; whether defendant was compelled to stand trial before jury while visibly shackled.

State v. Riley 1
Murder; whether resentencing court improperly denied motion for recusal where resentencing court was same court that presided over defendant's trial and imposed initial sentence; claim that recusal of resentencing court was required by statute (§ 51-183c), rule of practice (§ 1-22 [a]) Code of Judicial Conduct (rule 2.11 [a] [1]), and due process clauses of fifth and fourteenth amendments to United States constitution; claim that Practice Book § 1-22 provided ground for recusal independent of that provided by § 51-183c; claim that rule 2.11 (a)

(1) of Code of Judicial Conduct required recusal on ground that resentencing court was biased in favor of justifying defendant's initial sentence; claim that defendant's initial sentence had anchoring effect that prevented resentencing court from approaching resentencing hearing with fully open mind that would allow it to fully consider requirement under Miller v. Alabama (567 U.S. 460) that it give mitigating weight to defendant's youth and its hallmark features when considering whether to impose functional equivalent of life imprisonment without parole; claim that resentencing court considered seventy year sentence to be inappropriate but nevertheless imposed it because defendant would be eligible for parole pursuant to legislative amendments (P.A. 15-84) to statutes applicable to sentencing of children convicted of certain felonies (§ 54-91g) and parole eligibility (§ 54-125a); claim that resentencing court was required under Supreme Court's reversal of defendant's initial sentence and remand order to find that defendant was incorrigible, irreparably corrupt or irretrievably depraved before resentencing him to life without possibility of parole; whether discussion by Supreme Court in decision reversing defendant's initial sentence about presumption against life sentence without parole that must be overcome by evidence of unusual circumstances was rendered inapplicable by enactment of P.A. 15-84; claim that Miller, Supreme Court's decision reversing defendant's sentence and P.A. 15-84 limited resentencing court's discretion by creating presumption against imposition of life sentence that could be imposed only after finding that juvenile was permanently incorrigible, irreparably corrupt or irretrievably depraved.

Turchiano v. Roadmaster Paving & Sealing, LLC (Memorandum Decision)	902
U.S. Bank Trust, N.A. v. Giblen	221
Foreclosure; motion for approval of committee sale; annulment of automatic stay by Bankruptcy Court; claim that trial court's approval of sale was void ab initio because it exceeded scope of Bankruptcy Court's order annulling bankruptcy stay; whether Bankruptcy Court's order annulling stay was intended only to permit committee to recover fees and expenses; whether trial court abused its discretion in granting committee's motion for approval of sale; reviewability of claim that certain irregularities with motion for approval of sale prevented defendants from realizing substantial amount of equity in subject property; whether defendants failed to show any injury resulting specifically from five claimed irregularities with motion for approval of sale.
Viking Construction, Inc. v. 777 Residential, LLC	245
Contracts; whether trial court erred in rendering summary judgment in favor of cross claim plaintiffs; whether defects, errors and omissions exclusion of builder's risk policy unambiguously barred coverage; claim that defects, errors and omissions exclusion of builder's risk policy did not bar recovery because damaged windows were not part of renovation; claim that recovery for damage to windows was not barred by defects, errors and omissions exclusion of builder's risk policy because exclusion applied only to finished product, not to process implemented by subcontractor who damaged windows; claim that renovation endorsement would have been rendered meaningless if exclusion applied; whether trial court incorrectly interpreted resulting loss clause as entitling cross claim plaintiffs to coverage.
Vitti v. Milford	398
Workers' compensation; whether Compensation Review Board erred as matter of law by applying version of applicable statute ([Rev. to 2009] § 7-433c) that was in effect on date of plaintiff's injury to plaintiff's claim for heart and hypertension benefits; claim that board should have applied version of § 7-433c that was in effect on date of plaintiff's hire in 1993; claim that board erred as matter of law by affirming finding of Workers' Compensation Commissioner that plaintiff's giant cell myocarditis constituted heart disease under § 7-433c; credibility of witnesses.
Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Fitzpatrick	231
Foreclosure; notice requirements of mortgage; whether trial court properly determined that certain two letters together substantially complied with notice requirements in mortgage deed; whether trial court's finding that defendants did not prove special defense of laches was clearly erroneous; whether defendants established that any alleged delay by plaintiff resulted in prejudice to them; whether trial court's reduction in interest that accrued while first of two foreclosure actions was pending equitably addressed any delay in first foreclosure action.

Zaniewski v. Zaniewski 386

Dissolution of marriage; claim that trial court improperly failed to use parties' net incomes in calculating its orders of child support and alimony; claim that trial court improperly ordered defendant to pay alimony in amount that exceeded ability to pay; claim that trial court abused its discretion by crafting inequitable property distribution and alimony orders; whether it was possible to ascertain what path trial court followed in crafting its support orders and dividing marital assets without engaging in pure speculation; whether defendant did all that could reasonably be expected to obtain articulation; whether unique circumstances of case warranted new trial on financial matters; whether presumption of correctness of trial court's orders applied where there was inadequate factual record and appellant did all that could reasonably be expected of him to obtain articulation of factual findings necessary to obtain review of financial orders but was thwarted, through no fault of his own, due to retirement of trial judge.
