Cheswold (TL), LLC, BMO Harris Bank, N.A. v. Kwong	279
Foreclosure of tax liens; subject matter jurisdiction; standing; whether trial court properly denied defendant's motion to dismiss; claim that substitute plaintiff's failure to record certain assignment of tax liens on town land records deprived it of standing to pursue foreclosure action.
Cinotti v. Shred It U.S.A., LLC (Memorandum Decision)	907
Compass Bank v. Dunn	43
Foreclosure; whether trial court incorrectly granted motion for default for failing to disclose defense on ground that no "valid" defense was asserted; whether rule

of practice (§ 13-19) allows trial court to pass on legal sufficiency of proposed defense; claim that defendants interposed valid defense to foreclosure action.
Consiglio v. Al Dente, LLC (Memorandum Decision)	904
Deutsche Bank National Trust Co. v. Jafri (Memorandum Decision).	906
Dickau v. Mingrone	59
Property; breach of contract; claim that trial court erred in finding that city building department had not made determination regarding use and occupancy status of plaintiff's property; whether record was sufficient to support trial court's finding; claim that trial court erred in not finding that plaintiff established existence of damages.
Halperin v. Halperin.	603
Dissolution of marriage; postjudgment order; claim that trial court improperly interpreted provision of parties' separation agreement in determining that income derived from plaintiff's interests in two entities was included in provision's definition of total income for purposes of calculating plaintiff's unallocated support obligation; whether trial court's determination that parties intended to include income at issue in plaintiff's total income for purposes of determining his unallocated support obligation was clearly erroneous; whether plaintiff's construction of disputed language of provision would render superfluous provision's specific exclusion of certain other income; whether plaintiff's conversion of cash assets awarded at time of dissolution to shares of certain partnership that produced income stream for purposes of calculating unallocated support; whether equitable principles required that plaintiff's income from entities be excluded from calculation of unallocated support.
Hamann v. Carl	583
Civil theft; statutory (§ 52-564) treble damages for civil theft; unjust enrichment; claim that trial court erred in denying defendant's motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction; whether defendant waived claim of lack of personal jurisdiction; claim that trial court erred in finding defendant committed civil theft and in awarding treble damages; claim that trial court improperly set commencement date for prejudgment interest on unjust enrichment damages award.
Hannon v. Board of Education (Memorandum Decision)	903
Hogfeldt v. Board of Education (Memorandum Decision)	901
Holt v. Dolce (Memorandum Decision).	904
Hudson City Savings Bank v. Hellman	836
Foreclosure; summary judgment; claim that trial court abused its discretion when it granted motion to substitute plaintiff; whether substitution of plaintiff had substantive effect or prejudiced defendants; whether failure to substitute plaintiff prior to motion for summary judgment precluded defendants from obtaining discovery or hindered defendants' ability to defend themselves; claim that trial court improperly granted motion for summary judgment as to liability because plaintiff failed to establish existence of standing in that it possessed mortgage note at time action was commenced; claim that trial court improperly determined that substitute plaintiff satisfied its burden of proof to establish that plaintiff complied with notification requirements pursuant to mortgage.
In re Brooklyn O.	543
Child neglect; motion to revoke commitment; claim that trial court improperly found that respondent father failed to prove that commitment of minor child to custody of Commissioner of Children and Families was no longer warranted.
In re Gabriel C.	333

In re Geoffrey G.	316
Termination of parental rights; whether trial court improperly failed to order, sua sponte, evaluation of respondent mother's competency to assist her counsel at trial; whether mother established violation of her right to due process; claim that evidence in record demonstrated that mother's mental health issues, at time of trial, interfered with her ability to provide her newly retained counsel with truthful, relevant data in presentation of her case.

Jackson v. Waterbury Police Dept. (Memorandum Decision) 908

Jepsen v. Camassar 97

Declaratory judgment; action seeking declaration that certain modifications made by beach association to restrictive covenants in beach deed were invalid; claim that trial court improperly denied plaintiffs' postjudgment motion for equitable relief because this court's order of remand in first appeal required trial court to address their claims for quiet title and injunctive relief; claim that trial court improperly denied postjudgment motion for fees and costs; claim that, even assuming that this court's mandate in first appeal did not encompass claims of certain plaintiffs to quiet title, equitable relief, and fees and costs, trial court improperly denied their motion to open to provide them with their requested relief; claim that trial court violated several state and federal constitutional rights of certain plaintiffs by failing to hear or grant their postjudgment motions.

Jolley v. Vinton 379

Alleged deprivation of plaintiff's federal constitutional rights; whether trial court's finding that plaintiff failed to prove causal connection between plaintiff's conduct and defendant's alleged retaliation was clearly erroneous.

Kaminski v. Semple 528

Declaratory judgment; whether trial court properly granted motion to dismiss filed by defendant state employees; whether plaintiff lacked standing to raise claims as to certain defendants; claim that trial court improperly concluded that defendants were entitled to sovereign immunity and statutory (§ 4-165) immunity; adoption of trial court's memorandum of decision as statement of facts and applicable law on issues.

Kenneson v. Eggert 773

Fraud; absolute immunity; litigation privilege; motion to dismiss; claim that trial court erred in concluding that litigation privilege implicates subject matter jurisdiction; claim that trial court improperly granted motion to dismiss because statements at issue were not made during judicial proceeding and were not relevant to subject matter of proceeding.

Interpleader; interpleader action to determine rights of defendants to certain shares of plaintiff's common stock; motion to dismiss; subject matter jurisdiction; standing; claim that trial court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over interpleader action; whether plaintiff lacked standing because its nonparty transfer agent allegedly held subject shares on plaintiff's behalf; claim that trial court improperly denied defendant companies' motion to dismiss for mootness; claim that trial court improperly rendered interlocutory judgment of interpleader; whether it was premature for this court to consider merits of parties' purportedly adverse claims to shares; whether trial court properly exercised its authority to remand matter to clarify arbitration award as to ownership of shares; whether trial court violated doctrine of functus officio.
State v. Albert D.	155
Risk of injury to child; sexual assault in fourth degree; sexual assault in first degree; attempt to commit sexual assault in first degree; claim that defendant was entitled to new trial on basis of alleged prosecutorial improprieties during state's rebuttal closing argument; whether prosecutor's remarks on own credibility and credibility of witness constituted improper vouching for state's credibility; whether prosecutor's comments that state's experts were not allowed as matter of law to meet with victims were improper and constituted impropriety; whether law prohibits expert witnesses from meeting with children who are complainants of sexual assault; whether prosecutorial impropriety deprived defendant of due process right to fair trial under test set forth in State v. Williams (204 Conn. 523).

State v. Bloom (Memorandum Decision) 905

State v. Bornstein 420

Interlocutory appeal; violation of civil protection order; harassment in second degree; motion to dismiss; claim that state was collaterally estopped from pursuing criminal charges because relevant factual allegations had been subject of full evidentiary hearing at hearing on request for civil protection order that was denied; lack of final judgment; whether Appellate Court had jurisdiction to hear interlocutory appeal; double jeopardy.

State v. Bradbury 510

Criminal possession of firearm; carrying pistol without permit; assault in first degree; criminal attempt to commit robbery in first degree; claim that, in light of jury's not guilty finding on certain charges, there was insufficient evidence to support conviction as demonstrated by inconsistency of jury's verdict; whether defendant's attempt to obtain review of legal inconsistency between conviction and acquittal by recasting it as claim of evidentiary insufficiency changed nature of claim; whether state presented sufficient evidence to support defendant's conviction; whether defendant's argument that jury's not guilty verdict on certain charges meant that jury necessarily rejected victim's testimony in its entirety was availing.

State v. Bunn 549

Murder; conspiracy to commit murder; carrying pistol without permit; whether alleged prosecutorial impropriety deprived defendant of his due process right to fair trial.

State v. Fortin 805

Manlaughter in first degree with firearm; carrying pistol without permit; motion to preclude; motion for mistrial; claim that trial court improperly allowed state to introduce evidence of several instances of misconduct involving defendant's prior use of firearm that was used to shoot and kill victim; whether misconduct evidence lacked probative value and was unduly prejudicial to defendant because his offer to stipulate that he had shot victim with firearm obviated state's need to prove identity; whether defendant's reliance on Old Chief v. United States (519 U.S. 172) for proposition that trial court erred in not balancing his offer to stipulate with prejudicial effect of misconduct evidence was availing; claim that trial court abused its discretion in denying motion for mistrial; unpreserved claim that defendant's constitutional right to confrontation was violated when trial court allowed state trooper to testify that town's first selectman told her that defendant did not have temporary town permit to carry firearm that he used to shoot and kill victim.

State v. Hargett 228

Murder; claim that trial court's exclusion of evidence deprived defendant of right to present defense; whether defendant demonstrated relevancy of alleged statement; whether defendant laid evidentiary foundation for claim of self-defense; whether there was causal relationship between toxicology report and cause of death of victim; whether there was evidence that defendant had reason to believe deadly physical force was required; claim that trial court violated defendant's right to due process by refusing to give self-defense jury instruction; whether reasonable juror could have concluded that defendant believed himself to be in imminent or immediate danger; whether trial court properly denied defendant's motion for new trial or to dismiss charges for state's late disclosure of firearm related evidence; whether late disclosure constituted bad faith; whether defendant was prejudiced in plea bargaining or trial by late disclosure of evidence; claim that defendant was denied fair trial by prosecutorial impropriety in closing argument; whether prosecutor's improper statement harmed defendant.

State v. Joseph V. 712

Sexual assault in first degree; risk of injury to child; conspiracy to commit risk of injury to child; whether trial court improperly sanctioned nonunanimous jury verdict when it denied motion for bill of particulars and request that court give

	jury specific unanimity instruction as to charge of sexual assault in first degree; claim that information was duplicitous in that it contained allegations that could have been stated as separate offenses; claim that information gave rise to risk that defendant would not be afforded unanimous verdict because different jurors could reach guilty verdict on same count on basis of findings as to different incidents of abuse; claim that trial court abused its discretion when it admitted evidence that defendant and coconspirator had had sexual relationship since childhood.
State v. Petersen		646
	Failure to appear; whether evidence was sufficient to support defendant's conviction of failure to appear in first degree; claim that evidence of events after defendant arrived at courthouse was irrelevant to whether defendant wilfully failed to appear prior to forfeiture of bond; claim that trial court abused its discretion by admitting evidence of events after defendant arrived at courthouse; claim that trial court improperly admitted testimony of defendant's former attorney; whether trial court properly instructed jury on third element of failure to appear in first degree.
State v. Prince A.		413
	Sexual assault in first degree; sexual assault in fourth degree; risk of injury to child; constancy of accusation doctrine discussed; whether trial court improperly denied motion to strike testimony of constancy of accusation witness who testified that it was her belief that victim had reported assault contemporaneously, without delay; application of constancy of accusation doctrine as modified in State v. Daniel W. E. (322 Conn. 593), under which constancy of accusation testimony is permissible if defendant challenges victim's credibility on cross-examination.
State v. Richards.		387
	Murder; whether evidence was sufficient to support conviction; whether jury reasonably could have inferred that defendant intended to cause death of victim and did in fact cause her death; whether trial court committed plain error in failing to give special credibility instruction regarding testimony of cooperating witness; whether state's decision to prosecute defendant in third trial after two previous trials ended in mistrials violated defendant's right to due process.
State v. Rosa		480
	Murder; assault in first degree; criminal possession of firearm; unpreserved claim that state suppressed DNA evidence that was material to defense in violation of Brady v. Maryland (373 U.S. 83) and did not disclose it until after jury returned verdict; claim that DNA match between sweatshirt found in vicinity of crime scene and DNA sample of convicted felon constituted material evidence; claim that lack of evidence of DNA match at trial undermined trial's fairness and resulted in verdict that was not worthy of confidence.
State v. Spells (Memorandum Decision)		905
State v. Torres (Memorandum Decision)		902
Thomas v. Commissioner of Correction (Memorandum Decision)		907
Thompson v. Commission of Correction (Memorandum Decision)		901
Turek v. Zoning Board of Appeals		122
	Zoning; claim that trial court incorrectly concluded that plaintiffs demonstrated legally cognizable hardship; claim that trial court erroneously determined that plaintiffs' application to zoning board for variance qualified under exception to hardship requirement set forth in Adolphson v. Zoning Board of Appeals (205 Conn. 703).
U.S. Bank, National Assn. v. Madison.		267
	Foreclosure; motion for summary judgment as to liability; motion for judgment of strict foreclosure; bankruptcy; motion to reenter judgment of strict foreclosure; claim that trial court erred by concluding that defendant lacked standing to object to plaintiff's motion to reenter judgment; whether defendant lacked standing to pursue her defense to plaintiff's interest in property because her failure to notify bankruptcy trustee of defense by not disclosing it as asset of bankruptcy estate precluded her from raising defense after discharge of bankruptcy estate; whether Beck & Beck, LLC v. Costello (178 Conn. App. 112) was applicable; whether plaintiff's reliance on Beck & Beck, LLC, conflated debtor's claim for money damages as asset of bankruptcy estate with debtor's defense to enforcement of invalid lien; whether defendant's claim that either bankruptcy trustee or any creditor could move to reopen bankruptcy estate if trial court were to find mortgage invalid ignored threshold issue that defendant lacked legal capacity to raise that defense.

U.S. Bank Trust, N.A. v. O'Brien (Memorandum Decision)	903
Vaicunas v. Gaylord	785
Undue influence; adverse possession; tortious interference with expectation of inheritance; motion to set aside verdict; whether trial court abused discretion in setting aside jury verdict as to count of adverse possession; whether trial court abused discretion in denying offer of evidence of character in form of opinion testimony; claim that trial court improperly charged jury as to count of undue influence.
Wachovia Mortgage, FSB v. Toczek	1
