(SC 20629)

Robinson, C. J., and D'Auria, Mullins,
Ecker and Alexander, Js.

Argued September 16—officially released October 18, 2022

PER CURIAM. After examining the entire record on appeal and considering the briefs and oral arguments of the parties, we have determined that the appeal should be dismissed on the ground that certification was improvidently granted.

The appeal is dismissed.

Kevin S. Coyne, with whom, on the brief, was James E. Coyne, for the appellant (defendant Department of Administrative Services).

Charles K. Norris, with whom, on the brief, was Anthony D. Sutton, for the appellee (plaintiff).

Jeremy H. D'Amico filed a brief for the Connecticut Trial Lawyers Association as amicus curiae.
