DEPUTY CHIEF STATE'S ATTORNEY FOR OPERATIONS

Applications are being accepted for the full-time position of Deputy Chief State's Attorney for Operations for the Division of Criminal Justice. The successful applicant shall hold office from date of appointment to June 30, 2021, and thereafter be subject to appointment to a four (4) year term. The annual salary is $161,529.

The Deputy Chief State's Attorney for Operations assists the Chief State's Attorney in the administration of the Division of Criminal Justice by providing advice and legal counsel on investigative and prosecutive matters. The Deputy Chief State's Attorney for Operations directly supervises the bureaus assigned to the Chief State's Attorney's Office, including the Appellate and Civil Litigation Bureaus, the State-wide Prosecution Bureau, the Cold Case Bureau, and the government program fraud bureaus. In addition, the Deputy Chief State's Attorney for Operations assists the State's Attorneys in investigations and prosecutions as needed.

The position requires significant experience in the prosecution of major crimes and the investigation of complex and sensitive matters. Experience in handling criminal appeals and other post-conviction litigation is strongly preferred. At the time of appointment, the successful candidate must be an attorney-at-law and shall have been admitted to the practice of law for at least three years; residency in the State of Connecticut is a prerequisite to appointment. The Deputy Chief State's Attorney for Operations shall devote his full time to the duties of his office and shall not otherwise engage in the practice of law and shall not be a partner, member or associate of a law firm.

Division of Criminal Justice application forms must be completed by all applicants. These forms may be obtained from the Office of the Chief State's Attorney, any State's Attorney's Office, or downloaded from the Division website at www.ct.gov/csao.

An original plus one copy of the application, resume and reference letters must be sent via U.S. Mail postmarked no later than June 15, 2018, so that they are received by: Honorable Andrew McDonald, Chairman, Criminal Justice Commission, c/o Office of the Chief State's Attorney, 300 Corporate Place, Rocky Hill, CT 06067, Attn: DCSA. Applications received by facsimile or e-mail will not be accepted. The Division of Criminal Justice is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.
