Casablanca v. Casablanca (Order), 333 C 913	87
Commissioner of Transportation v. Lagosz (Order), 333 C 912	86
DeChellis v. DeChellis (Order), 333 C 913	87
In re Taijha H.-B., 333 C 297	3
Termination of parental rights; appeal from trial court's granting of appointed appellate counsel's motion to withdraw based on counsel's determination that any appeal from termination decision was frivolous; dismissal of appeal by Appellate Court on grounds that procedure set forth in Anders v. California (386 U.S. 738) is not applicable to withdrawal of appellate attorney in child protection proceedings and that appeal was not properly filed due to failure to comply with rules of practice (§ 79a-3 [c]); certification from Appellate Court; whether Appellate Court improperly dismissed indigent respondent's appeal for failure to comply with Practice Book § 79a-3 (c) insofar as counsel filed respondent's appeal before fully reviewing merits of appeal; claim that § 79a-3 violates equal protection clause of fourteenth amendment to United States constitution on ground that rule imposes higher legal burden on appeals brought by indigent litigants who have been assigned counsel than on litigants who have financial means to hire private counsel; differences between standards in determining whether appeal is frivolous or meritless set forth in Rules of Professional Conduct (3.1) and rules of practice (§§ 35a-21 [b] and 79a-3), discussed; whether respondent had right under due process clause of fourteenth amendment to assistance of counsel in connection with her appeal from termination of parental rights; factors to be considered in determining whether indigent parents have federal constitutional right to counsel in termination proceedings and appeals, discussed; whether due process required utilization of some Anders-type procedure before court could allow appointed counsel to withdraw; whether Appellate Court improperly dismissed respondent's appeal on ground that procedure set forth in Anders was not applicable to withdrawal of appellate attorney in child protection proceedings; minimal procedural safeguards that court must follow before allowing appointed counsel to withdraw in connection with appeal from termination decision, discussed; whether trial court failed to observe adequate procedural safeguards before permitting respondent's counsel to withdraw.
R.T. Vanderbilt Co. v. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co., 333 C 343	49
Insurance; declaratory judgment action to determine, inter alia, rights and obligations under insurance policies issued to plaintiff by defendant insurers in connection with actions against plaintiff alleging personal injuries resulting from exposure to asbestos; certification from Appellate Court; whether Appellate Court properly adopted, as matter of law, continuous trigger theory of coverage for asbestos related disease claims; whether Appellate Court properly upheld trial court's preclusion of expert testimony concerning medical science and timing of bodily injury from asbestos related disease; whether Appellate Court properly adopted unavailability of insurance exception to pro rata, time on risk allocation rule; whether Appellate Court properly interpreted pollution exclusion clauses contained in certain of defendants' secondary insurance policies to bar coverage for claims against plaintiff; claim that occupational disease exclusion clauses in certain of defendants' secondary insurance policies did not preclude coverage of claims by nonemployees of plaintiff who developed occupational disease while using plaintiff's products in course of working for other employers. or willingness that he do so; claim that defendant impliedly gave plaintiff consent to ride his bicycle on campus because there was lack of no trespassing signs and no gate at each entrance to campus; whether lack of no trespassing signs or gate, without some additional evidence demonstrating implied consent, was insufficient to send question of whether plaintiff was licensee to jury; whether evidence supported finding that defendant breached duty to plaintiff as licensee; whether defendant was required to warn plaintiff of obvious dangers of his actions; whether general verdict rule precluded review of plaintiff's remaining evidentiary claim, which related only to special defense of contributory negligence.

State v. Palumbo, 193 CA 457	79A
Sexual assault in first degree; sexual assault in fourth degree; risk of injury to child; claim that questions referring to trial as being first time that defendant mentioned that other people were in same area during hike where he alleged sexually abused minor victim violated his constitutional right to remain silent pursuant to Doyle v. Ohio (426 U.S. 610), by introducing evidence of his post-Miranda silence; claim that questions that sought to elicit evidence of defendant's post-Miranda silence amounted to prosecutorial impropriety that violated his due process right to fair trial; whether defendant's unreserved Doyle claim failed under third prong of State v. Golding (213 Conn. 233).
