CONNECTICUT REPORTS

Carolina v. Commissioner of Correction (Order), 334 C 909 . . . . .	83
Mahoney v. Commissioner of Correction (Order), 334 C 910 . . . . .	84
Perez v. Commissioner of Correction (Order), 334 C 910 . . . . .	84
State v. DeJesus (Order), 334 C 909 . . . . .	83
State v. Holmes, 334 C 202 . . . . .	2
Felony murder; home invasion, conspiracy to commit home invasion; criminal possession of firearm; claim that trial court improperly overruled defendant's objection, pursuant to Batson v. Kentucky (476 U.S. 79), to prosecutor's use of peremptory challenge to excuse prospective African-American juror; certification from Appellate Court; whether Appellate Court incorrectly concluded that trial court had properly overruled defendant's Batson objection; whether prosecutor's explanation for exercising challenge was race neutral; claim that this court should overrule State v. King (249 Conn. 645) and its progeny, holding that distrust of police and concern regarding fairness of criminal justice system constitute race neutral reasons for exercising peremptory challenge; shortcomings of Batson in addressing implicit bias and disparate impact that certain race neutral explanations for peremptory challenges have on minority jurors, discussed; Batson reform in Connecticut, including convening of Jury Selection Task Force to study issue of racial discrimination in selection of juries and to propose necessary changes, discussed.
State v. Moore, 334 C 275 . . . . .	75
Murder; certification from Appellate Court; claim that trial court improperly denied defendant's motion to strike venire panel; whether Appellate Court correctly concluded that data pertaining to entire African-American population in Connecticut and New London county did not constitute probative evidence of underrepresentation of African-American males in jury pool; claim that Appellate Court should have exercised its supervisory authority over administration of justice to require jury administrator to collect and maintain prospective jurors' racial and demographic data in accordance with statute (§ 51-232 [c]) concerning the issuance of questionnaires to prospective jurors; certification improvidently granted.
State v. Palumbo (Order), 334 C 909 . . . . .	83
State v. Pernell (Order), 334 C 910 . . . . .	84
State v. Raynor, 334 C 264 . . . . .	64
Assault first degree as accessory; conspiracy to commit assault first degree; certification from Appellate Court; whether Appellate Court correctly concluded that record was inadequate to review defendant's challenge under Batson v. Kentucky (476 U.S. 79) to prosecutor's exercise of peremptory challenge to strike prospective juror; adoption of Appellate Court's well reasoned opinion as proper statement of certified issue and applicable law concerning that issue. as result of alleged deficient performance; claim that habeas court improperly rejected petitioner's claim that his trial counsel rendered ineffective assistance by referring to petitioner as bully during closing argument; whether trial counsel's use of term bully during closing argument constituted sound trial strategy and, therefore, did not amount to deficient performance or fall below objective standard of reasonableness; whether habeas court properly determined that petitioner had not proven prejudice; whether there was reasonable probability that, but for trial counsel's alleged deficient performance, result of criminal trial would have been different.

Jacques v. Jacques, 195 CA 59 . . . . . 61A

Contracts; breach of parties' marital separation agreement; mootness; claim that trial court erred by concluding that action was barred by applicable statute of limitations (§ 52-576 [a]) and determining that it lacked continuing jurisdiction to enforce parties' separation agreement; whether claim that plaintiff's breach of contract action was not barred by statute of limitations was moot where plaintiff failed to challenge independent ground for court's adverse ruling.

La Morte v. Darien (Memorandum Decision), 195 CA 901 . . . . . 77A

Licari v. Commissioner of Correction (Memorandum Decision), 195 CA 902 . . . . . 78A

Michael D. v. Commissioner of Correction, 195 CA 6 . . . . . 8A

Habeas corpus; claim that petitioner's trial counsel provided ineffective assistance in failing to challenge admission of pornographic magazine into evidence; whether habeas court properly determined that trial counsel's conduct in attempting to preclude magazine did not constitute deficient performance; claim that trial counsel provided ineffective assistance by failing to request instruction that jury must unanimously agree on factual basis for each guilty verdict; whether habeas court properly determined that petitioner failed to establish prejudice resulting from trial counsel's failure to request specific unanimity instruction.

Rossell v. Rossell (Memorandum Decision), 195 CA 902. . . . . 78A

Starboard Fairfield Development, LLC v. Gremp, 195 CA 21 . . . . . 23A

Vexatious litigation; breach of contract; slander of title; intentional interference with contract; breach of fiduciary duty; claim that trial court improperly determined that defendants breached general release by pursuing civil action against plaintiffs; failure to brief claim adequately; claim that trial court improperly found that defendants slandered plaintiff's title to certain property by filing lis pendens and affidavit of fact pertaining to property on certain land records; whether trial court, as trier of fact, was free to discredit evidence provided at trial; whether this court was persuaded that trial court's finding of slander of title was either legally incorrect or factually unsupported; claim that trial court improperly found that defendants intentionally interfered with plaintiff's contract to sell certain property to third party; claim that trial court improperly awarded interest on amount held in escrow; whether defendants failed to brief argument beyond mere abstract assertion; claim that there was insufficient evidence for trial court to find that interference caused any actual loss; claim that trial court improperly awarded punitive damages without providing defendants adequate notice of hearing in accordance with rules of practice; whether defendants demonstrated that due process rights were violated or that trial court committed reversible error in calculating amount of punitive damages; whether record demonstrated that defendants had ample notice of hearing on punitive damages.

State v. Bradley, 195 CA 36 . . . . . 38A

Sale of controlled substance; violation of probation; claim that trial court erred in denying motions to dismiss charges; whether defendant, who is Caucasian, lacked standing to raise claim that his prosecution under Connecticut’s statutes criminalizing possession and sale of marijuana violated his rights under equal protection clause of United States constitution because such statutes were enacted for illicit purpose of discriminating against persons of African-American and Mexican descent; whether trial court misapplied rule set forth in State v. Long (268 Conn. 508); whether defendant demonstrated that he had personal interest that had been or could be injuriously affected by alleged discrimination in enactment of relevant statute (§ 21a-277 [b]); whether defendant’s claim alleged specific injury to himself beyond that of general interest of all marijuana sellers facing conviction under § 21a-277 (b); whether balancing of factors set forth in Powers v. Ohio (499 U.S. 400) pertaining to third-party standing weighed against defendant having standing to raise equal protection claim on behalf of racial and ethnic minorities who possessed constitutional rights that were allegedly violated; whether relationship between defendant and subject minority groups was close; whether there existed hindrance to ability of criminal defendant who is member of racial or ethnic minority group charged under § 21a-277 (b) from asserting his or her own constitutional rights in his or her own criminal prosecution.

State v. Colon (Memorandum Decision), 195 CA 902 . . . . . 78A

State v. Mukhtaar, 195 CA 1 . . . . . 3A
