CONNECTICUT APPELLATE REPORTS

Audibert v. Halle, 198 CA 472	82A
Negligence; motion to set aside verdict and for new trial; reviewability of claim, raised for first time on appeal, that trial court improperly admitted evidence of subsequent motor vehicle accident plaintiff was involved in because evidence was not relevant; claim that trial court improperly failed to provide curative instruction to jury; whether trial court abused its discretion in denying motion to set aside verdict and for new trial; whether certain remarks by defendant's counsel during closing argument were improper and deprived plaintiff of fair trial.
Pack 2000, Inc. v. Cushman, 198 CA 428	38A
Leases; options to purchase real property; specific performance; whether trial court erred in ordering specific performance remedy that was contrary to terms of purchase options; claim that trial court erred in its determination of purchase prices based on present day appraisal values of properties; whether trial court erred in ordering plaintiff to make certain rent and use and occupancy payments and by refusing to credit any such payments against purchase prices; whether defendant was entitled to interest on purchase price of properties; whether trial court erred in failing to set purchase price for one property based on appraised value submitted by defendant.
Sackman v. Quinlan, 198 CA 614	224A
Conversion; unjust enrichment; tortious interference with contract; whether trial court abused its discretion when it granted motion for permission to file motion for summary judgment; claim that trial court failed to analyze incompetency of counsel pursuant to statute (§ 45a-650); whether trial court properly rendered summary judgment for defendants; whether genuine issues of material fact existed as to claims of conversion, unjust enrichment and intentional interference with contractual relations; claim that trial court improperly determined that agreement between plaintiffs' deceased father and deceased father's second wife was invalid; claim that trial court failed to view evidence in light most favorable to plaintiffs.
State v. Auburn W., 198 CA 558	168A
Harassment in second degree; stalking in second degree; whether trial court improperly determined that defendant forfeited right to self-representation on basis of lack of competence; whether trial court abused its discretion in concluding that defendant had mental illness or mental incapacity.
State v. Brown, 198 CA 630	240A
Assault in first degree; claim that state presented insufficient evidence to disprove defendant's theory of self-defense; credibility of witnesses.
State v. Harris, 198 CA 530	140A
Murder; robbery in first degree; carrying pistol without permit; whether trial court improperly admitted uncharged misconduct evidence; unpreserved claims on appeal; plain error doctrine; whether alleged prosecutorial impropriety deprived defendant of his due process right to fair trial; claim that defendant was deprived of his right to due process because materially favorable evidence was withheld.

State v. Jackson, 198 CA 489. 99A
Violation of probation; claim that evidence was insufficient to support finding that defendant violated his probation; claim that there was insufficient evidence to prove defendant had constructive possession of narcotics that formed basis for his arrest; claim that two instances in which defendant failed to report to Office of Adult Probation were de minimis and insufficient to support finding of violation of probation; reviewability of claim that trial court erred in admitting hearsay testimony during probation revocation hearing; whether trial court abused its discretion in admitting hearsay statements; whether trial court abused its discretion in imposing sentence of six years of incarceration.

State v. Lenhart, 198 CA 591 201A
Murder; capital felony; whether trial court's improper exclusion of videotape evidence violated defendant's constitutional rights to confrontation and to present defense.

State Marshal Assn. of Connecticut, Inc. v. Johnson, 198 CA 392. 2A
Declaratory action; motion to dismiss; claim that trial court improperly determined that plaintiff lacked associational standing; whether plaintiff established that its members were classically or statutorily aggrieved by challenged conduct; whether trial court abused its discretion in denying plaintiff's motion for reargument and reconsideration.

Stubbs v. ICare Management, LLC, 198 CA 511 121A
Employment discrimination; claim that trial court erred in rendering summary judgment for defendants; whether trial court improperly concluded that plaintiff failed to establish prima facie case of discrimination as there was genuine issue of material fact as to whether termination of plaintiff's employment was pretextual and as to whether, at time plaintiff's employment was terminated, plaintiff was qualified to perform essential functions of job, following reasonable accommodation of leave of absence; whether trial court improperly rendered summary judgment on plaintiff's reasonable accommodation claims as there was genuine issue of material fact as to whether plaintiff could perform essential functions of job with accommodation of leave of absence to have and recover from surgery.
