Practice Book Revisions being considered by the Rules Committee of the Superior Court, those adopted on an interim basis under Practice Book Section 1-9B in light of the declared public health and civil preparedness emergencies, and Notice of Public Hearing appear beginning on Page 1PB. The proposed revisions and rules adopted on an interim basis are posted on the Judicial Branch website at: www.jud.ct.gov/pb.htm.

trial court erred in granting defendant's motion for summary judgment; claim that abutting landowner had duty to maintain and repair sidewalk; claim that growth of tree on abutting landowner's property constituted affirmative act of landowner in creating nuisance.

State v. Chester J., 204 CA 137 3A

Sexual assault in second degree; sexual assault in third degree; sexual assault in fourth degree; risk of injury to child; whether trial court improperly denied defendant's challenge to venire panel; claim that trial court violated defendant's sixth amendment right to venire panel that reflected fair cross section of potential jurors from community; claim that defendant's right to equal protection was violated by jury selection procedure that was susceptible to abuse or was not racially neutral; whether this court should exercise its supervisory authority over administration of justice to require state to collect demographic data in accordance with statute (§ 51-232 (c)) prohibiting discrimination in jury selection; reviewability of claim that trial court erred in prohibiting defendant from inquiring about certain Probate Court matters.

State v. Oscar H., 204 CA 207 73A

Murder; attempt to commit murder; assault in first degree; risk of injury to child; whether trial court properly determined that witness was unavailable to testify at trial pursuant to former testimony exception to rule against hearsay in applicable provision (§ 8-6 (1)) of Connecticut Code of Evidence; whether state made sufficient efforts to establish witness' unavailability to testify at trial; claim that admission into evidence of transcript of unavailable witness' deposition violated defendant's rights to confrontation and due process; unpreserved claim that conviction of attempt to commit murder and assault in first degree violated constitutional prohibition against double jeopardy.

State v. Siler, 204 CA 171. 37A

Possession of narcotics with intent to sell; criminal possession of firearm; whether trial court properly denied motion to suppress certain evidence; assertion that this court should overrule Supreme Court's decision in State v. Barton (219 Conn. 529) that adopted totality of circumstances test for determining probable cause under article first, § 7, of Connecticut constitution; claim that police affidavit in support of application for search warrant did not establish probable cause because it lacked necessary nexus between defendant's residence and criminal activity alleged in warrant application.
