CONNECTICUT APPELLATE REPORTS

A & R Enterprises, LLC v. Sentinel Ins. Co., Ltd., 202 CA 224 Insurance; alleged breach of commercial automobile insurance policy; reviewability of claim that trial court erred in concluding that recovery of full cost of repairs to insured's vehicle was precluded by insured's failure to comply with voluntary payment provision of insurance policy issued by defendant; claim that trial court erred in concluding that defendant's reliance on insured's alleged noncompliance with voluntary payment provision of policy did not constitute improper attempt to steer insured to defendant's preferred auto repair shop in violation of applicable statute (§ 38a-354 (b)). In re November H., 202 CA 106 Termination of parental rights; claim that trial court's finding that respondent father lacked normal and healthy parent-child bond with his child was internally inconsistent with finding that there was no parent-child relationship; whether there was clear and convincing evidence that father failed to achieve sufficient degree of personal rehabilitation as would encourage belief that within reasonable time he could assume responsible position in life of child; claim that trial court's finding that additional time was necessary for father to form normal and healthy parent-child bond was clearly erroneous; claim that trial court's finding that father would be responsible for providing housing and financial support to child within reasonable time was clearly erroneous; whether conduct of child's mother and Commissioner of Children and Families required trial court to consider interference exception to statute (§17a-112 (j) (3) (D)) in determining that father lacked normal and healthy parent-child bond with child; whether trial court made improper comparison between father and child's foster parent in determining that father failed to sufficiently rehabilitate. Indoor Billboard Northwest, Inc. v. M2 Systems Corp., 202 CA 139 Unjust enrichment; assignment of rights under promissory note; whether trial court improperly rendered judgment in favor of individual who was not plaintiff and had not assigned to plaintiff his interest in promissory note that was executed in his favor; unpreserved claim that trial court could not properly consider setoff issue without first permitting defendant to review plaintiffs' tax returns; whether trial court abused its discretion in rejecting special defense of unclean hands; whether trial court's factual finding that promissory note had been amended was clearly erroneous; whether evidence supported trial court's finding that plaintiffs were entitled to recover under theory of unjust enrichment; claim that plaintiffs failed to prove that defendant unjustly did not pay them for benefit defendant received; claim that plaintiffs did not prove that defendant's failure to pay them was to plaintiffs' detriment; whether trial court's finding that defendant's loan obligation was satisfied in part with use of plaintiffs' funds was clearly erroneous; whether trial court erred in finding that plaintiffs satisfied defendant's debt despite plaintiffs' failure to produce evidence of written discharge of promissory note; whether trial court properly denied plaintiffs' postjudgment motion for attorney's fees and expenses. Jan G. v. Semple, 202 CA 202 Alleged deprivation of plaintiff inmate's federal constitutional rights; motion to dismiss; claim that trial court improperly concluded that it lacked subject matter and personal jurisdiction over plaintiff's claims brought against defendants in their individual capacities; whether defendants were entitled to statutory (§ 4-	120 2 35 98
