Notice of Reinstatement to the Bar

Pursuant to Practice Book § 2-54(b), notice is hereby given that on February 15, 2022 in docket number HHD-CV18-6103946-S the application for reinstatement to the practice of law in Connecticut of Justin Freeman, juris number 418826, was GRANTED with the following conditions:

For a period of eighteen months immediately following his reinstatement:

- a. The applicant shall continue to retain the services of a competent bookkeeping service with experience managing lawyers' clients' funds accounts. No less frequently than monthly, the bookkeeping services provider shall review all transactions in the applicant's clients' funds accounts to ensure that the transactions are properly and accurately recorded and reconciled with associate bank records.
- b. The applicant shall be supervised by Attorney Paul Iannaccone. The applicant shall meet with Attorney Iannaccone no less frequently than monthly and shall allow Attorney Iannaccone to examine the applicant's clients' funds account records and to require the applicant to address any deficiencies or concerns raised by such examination.
- c. The applicant shall not practice law with his brother, Deron Freeman, or in a firm in which his brother practices, so long as Deron Freeman remains subject to pending federal criminal charges or to any sentence that may be imposed on him if he is found guilty of such charges. This prohibition applies to the period of any appeal that may be taken in Deron Freeman's federal criminal case.
