CONNECTICUT REPORTS

State v. Bowden, 344 C 266	68
Manlaughter first degree with firearm; felony murder; robbery first degree; carrying pistol without permit; stealing firearm; criminal possession of pistol or revolver; claim that trial court improperly denied defendant's motion to suppress evidence from search of his cell phone in violation of fourth amendment to United States constitution; whether application for warrant authorizing search lacked particular description of things to be seized; whether affidavit supporting application failed to establish probable cause; whether any error in trial court's failure to suppress evidence obtained pursuant to warrant was harmless.
State v. Patterson, 344 C 281	83
Murder; whether trial court abused its discretion in admitting uncharged misconduct evidence; claim that testimony by state's firearms expert was irrelevant to issue of shooter's identity insofar as witness' methodology lacked scientific reliability; claim that prejudicial effect of uncharged misconduct evidence outweighed its probative value; claim that uncharged misconduct evidence was cumulative.
State v. Samuolis, 344 C 200	2
Murder; assault first degree; attempt to commit assault first degree; claim that trial court improperly denied defendant's motion to suppress certain evidence seized by police officers as result of their warrantless entry into his home; whether officers' warrantless entry into defendant's home was justified under emergency exception to warrant requirement of fourth amendment to United States constitution; whether, under totality of circumstances, it was reasonably objective for officers to conclude that there was emergency justifying their initial entry into defendant's home; applicability of emergency exception in light of United States Supreme Court's decision in Caniglia v. Strom (141 S. Ct. 1596), discussed.
State v. Smith, 344 C 229	31
Robbery first degree; conspiracy to commit robbery first degree; assault first degree; arson second degree; conspiracy to commit arson second degree; attempt to commit murder; conspiracy to commit murder; larceny third degree; interfering with officer; claim that trial court improperly denied defendant's motion to suppress evidence discovered during search of his cell phone and evidence obtained from his cell phone provider; whether warrants authorizing searches were supported by probable cause; whether warrants were sufficiently particular to comport with fourth amendment to United States constitution; whether any error in denial of defendant's motion to suppress was harmless beyond reasonable doubt.

CONNECTICUT APPELLATE REPORTS

Brass Mill Center, LLC v. Subway Real Estate Corp., 214 CA 379	49A
Indemnification; summary judgment; claim that trial court erred in denying summary judgment for defendant and rendering summary judgment for plaintiff; whether defendant security company had duty to defend and indemnify plaintiff in wrongful death action involving pedestrian death on mall roadway pursuant to language of its contract with plaintiff to provide security services to mall property.
CIT Bank, N.A. v. Francis, 214 CA 332	2A
Foreclosure; discovery; protective order; whether trial court abused its discretion by granting protective order that precluded defendant heir from engaging in discovery

to develop and pursue special defenses; claim that state and federal law prohibited plaintiff from complying with discovery requests; claim that heir could have amended stricken special defenses or obtained discovery from sources other than plaintiff; claim that heir was required to file affidavit pursuant to applicable rule of practice (§ 17-47) in response to plaintiff's motion for summary judgment as to special defenses.

Gianetti v. Neigher, 214 CA 394 64A

Legal malpractice; whether defendant, who represented plaintiff in prior action, committed professional negligence by failing to initiate claims under Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act (§ 42-110a et seq.) and for tortious interference with business expectancies; whether trial court abused its discretion by granting defendant's motion to preclude testimony of plaintiff's proposed expert witness based on plaintiff's noncompliance with rule of practice (§ 13-4) applicable to disclosure during discovery; whether sanction of preclusion of testimony by expert witness was proportional to plaintiff's noncompliance with Practice Book § 13-4; whether trial court improperly granted defendant's motion for summary judgment.

Michael G. v. Commissioner of Correction, 214 CA 358 28A

Habeas corpus; dismissal of third habeas petition as untimely pursuant to applicable statute (§ 52-470 (d) and (e)); claim that habeas court abused its discretion in denying petition for certification to appeal; whether habeas court abused its discretion in determining that petitioner failed to demonstrate good cause for delay in filing third habeas petition; whether habeas court abused its discretion in denying motion for disqualification of habeas judge.
