Pursuant to Practice Book § 2-54(b), notice is hereby given that on October 13, 2023 in docket number NNH CV09-4036109, the application for reinstatement to the practice of law in Connecticut of George Hwang [juris number 422058] of Avon, Connecticut was GRANTED, with a four-year probationary period, effective immediately, subject to the following conditions:

- 1) The Applicant shall utilize a mentor attorney for a period of four years. It is the expectation of the Committee that once the Applicant is admitted, he would be actively involved in real estate transactions as part of his employment with the Chun Law Firm in Darien, Connecticut. The Committee understands and expects that the Applicant will work under the auspices of Attorney Sheila Chun of the Chun Law Firm, LLC. The mentor must submit status reports to the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel detailing the Applicant's compliance with all conditions of the order and the overall status of the applicant / mentor relationship. In the first year of the probation, the reporting must be made quarterly. In the second year of probation, the reporting must be done twice (at six months and within one month before the end of the probationary term). Should there be any change in the relationship with Attorney Chun, the Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel must be notified immediately.
- 2) In addition to the random inspections and audits of accounts maintained pursuant to Rule 1.15 of the Rules of Professional Conduct, the Applicant shall during the probationary period provide the Statewide Grievance Committee with all records, documents, and information necessary to evidence compliance with Rule 1.15 of the Rules of Professional Conduct and Practice Book Section 2-27 on a quarterly basis.
- 3) The Applicant must retain and maintain malpractice insurance coverage until such time that he retires or resigns from the practice of law. The Applicant shall provide proof of coverage in writing to the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel within thirty days of the probationary period and annually thereafter for each year during the probation term.
- 4) Any change in employment status must be immediately reported to the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel.
- 5) The probationary period will expire four years from the effective date of this order absent further court order. The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the clerk of the Judicial District of New Haven upon the expiration of the probationary period.
