

Notice is hereby given that all Connecticut Attorneys and Authorized House Counsel must comply with the minimum continuing legal education (MCLE) requirement under Practice Book Section 2-27A(a)(1) for calendar year 2021. Any MCLE credits earned by Connecticut Attorneys and Authorized House Counsel during the 2020 calendar year, may be completely transferred to comply with the 2021 calendar year requirement, even if the amount exceeds the two hour cap provided for in the Rule. More information about MCLE is available at <https://www.jud.ct.gov/MCLE/>. Free MCLE is available from the Judicial Branch through its podcast Calendar Call at <https://www.jud.ct.gov/podcast/>. If you have any questions about your MCLE status, you may e-mail mcle@jud.ct.gov for additional information.
