By the authority of the State of Connecticut, you are ordered to cause any wages due to the Judgment Debtor(s), not exceeding the Amount of Execution calculated on page 2, to be paid to the Judgment Creditor(s) until the judgment is satisfied, including postjudgment interest as ordered by the court, if applicable, plus the application fee(s) and other Court ordered postjudgment costs and fees, and your own fees or until the execution is modified or set aside. Serve this execution within one year of this date, and make return of service to this court within thirty days from satisfaction of the execution.

Important Notice To Employer

You are being served with a wage execution, a court order requiring you to withhold non-exempt wages from a person employed by you. This execution is being served on you because your employee, the Judgment Debtor (on page 1), has had a judgment entered against him/her by the Superior Court requiring him/her to pay judgment, costs and fees to the Judgment Creditor (on page 1) and has not made payment of the total amount of the judgment plus any costs and fees as shown on page 1. This notice is to inform you of the actions you must take in order to comply with the law regarding wage executions. Please read each section carefully.

I. You must notify the employee — Your employee has certain legal rights which may allow him/her to request the court to change or stop this execution upon his/her wages. A notice of his/her rights and how to get a hearing in court is attached to the second copy of the wage execution given to you by the officer. You must complete your portion of the wage execution and your portion of the exemption and modification claim form and deliver or mail, postage prepaid, a copy of these papers to your employee immediately so that your employee can make any claims allowed by law.

II. Execution not effective for 20 days — This execution is not effective until after 20 days from the day the officer served these papers on you. No money should be deducted from your employee's wages until the first wages you pay to your employee after the 20-day period ends. If your employee elects within the 20-day period to make a claim to the court that his/her wages are partially or totally exempt from execution to pay this judgment or he/she seeks to have the amount of this execution changed, wages are not to be withheld from the employee until the court decides the claims or determines the rights of your employee in this case. If you are not notified that your employee has filed papers with the court, the execution is to be enforced after 20 days from the date of service on you.

III. Stay of execution — No earnings claimed to be exempt or subject to a claim for modification may be withheld from any employee until determination of the claim by the court.

IV. Only one execution issued under section 52-361a of the General Statutes is to be satisfied at a time — You must make deductions from your employee's wages and pay over the withheld money against only one execution issued under General Statutes section 52-361a at a time. If you are served with more than one execution issued under General Statutes section 52-361a against this employee's wages, the executions are to be satisfied in the order in which you are served with them. (Income withholdings and voluntary wage deductions for support of a family, if there are any, must be paid before this execution. Family support income withholdings and voluntary wage deductions are issued on Form JD-FM-1.)

V. Maximum amount deducted — The maximum amount which can be legally withheld from your employee's wages is 25% of his/her disposable earnings for each week. The amount to be withheld to pay this execution may be less than 25%, but it can never be more. The computations you complete below will allow you to calculate the exact amount which should be withheld from this employee's wages.

Unless the court orders that this execution is to be for a smaller amount, you must withhold and pay over the maximum amount which you figure out using the computations below. Your employee has a right to request the court to reduce the amount withheld, but until you receive notice that the court has agreed to allow the amount to be reduced, you must withhold the maximum amount.

VI. Your duty to comply with this execution — You have a legal duty to make deductions from your employee's wages and pay any amounts deducted as required by this execution. If you do not, legal action may be taken against you. If you are found to be in contempt of a court order, you may be held liable to the Judgment Creditor for the amounts of wages which you did not withhold from your employee.

VII. Discipline against your employee — You may not discipline, suspend or discharge your employee because this wage execution has been served upon you. If you do unlawfully take action against your employee, you may be liable to pay him all of his lost earnings and employment benefits from the time of your action to the time that the employee is reinstated.

The law allows you to take disciplinary measures against the employee if you are served with more than 7 wage executions against his/her wages in any calendar year.
