1. A joint petition asking for a divorce (dissolution of marriage) and other relief was filed in this court on (date) _____ .
2. Both petitioners have attested, under oath, that the necessary conditions required for the entry of a nonadversarial divorce decree (decree of dissolution) have been met.
3. The Court in this case considered the evidence and finds the following:
Petitioner A, _____ married Petitioner B, _____ on _____ at _____ and, if applicable, entered into a civil union that merged into a marriage by subsequent ceremony or by operation of law on _____ at _____ .
4. "X" one:
 At least one petitioner has lived in Connecticut for at least 12 months immediately before the filing of this joint petition or before the divorce will become final.
 At least one petitioner lived in Connecticut at the time of the marriage, moved away, and then returned to Connecticut, planning to live here permanently.
 The marriage broke down after at least one petitioner moved to Connecticut.
5. A divorce is granted based on the joint petition because the marriage has broken down irretrievably.
6. ("X" if it applies) The court finds that the agreement between the parties is fair and equitable.

Based on these facts, the court hereby dissolves the marriage of the petitioners and declares each petitioner to be single and unmarried. The court further orders:

- The written agreement between the petitioners dated _____ is attached and its terms are incorporated by reference.
- A name change to the birth or former name for Petitioner A to _____
- A name change to the birth or former name for Petitioner B to _____
