Instructions

To Financial Institution

1. Complete section 2 of this form and (1) send 2 copies of this form and the financial institution execution form to the judgment debtor and to any secured party that is party to a control agreement between the financial institution and such secured party under article 9 of title 42a pursuant to General Statutes § 52-367b and (2) mail notice to judgment debtor as required by 31CFR212.6 and 212.7.
2. If this claim of exemption is returned completed, fill out Section 6 of this form and mail, within two business days, to the issuing clerk's office at the address of court indicated on the front side. See additional instructions on the financial institution execution form.

To Clerk

1. Attach this form to each financial institution execution issued in a civil or family matter against a judgment debtor that is a natural person.
2. Deliver the execution along with this form to the judgment creditor requesting the execution.
3. If judgment debtor completes and returns this form claiming an exemption, enter the appearance of the judgment debtor with address set forth on page 1.
4. Set matter down for hearing.
5. Complete Section 7 below.
6. Send file-stamped copy of this form to judgment debtor and judgment creditor.
7. After hearing, send copy of any order entered to the financial institution.

Note Regarding Exemption for Alimony and Support

Alimony and Support, other than child support, are exempt only to the following extent:

The amount of alimony and support, other than child support, that may be subject to levy or other withholding for payment of a judgment is the lesser of (1) twenty-five percent of the individual's disposable earnings for that week, or (2) the amount by which the individual's disposable earnings for that week exceed forty times the higher of (A) the federal minimum hourly wage under Section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, U.S.C. Title 29, Section 206(a)(1), or (B), the state minimum hourly wage under subsection (i) of Section 31-58, in effect at the time the earnings are payable.

General Statutes § 52-350a(4) defines "disposable earnings" as that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required to be withheld for payment of federal income and employment taxes, normal retirement contributions, union dues and initiation fees, group life insurance premiums, health insurance premiums and federal tax levies.
