Notice to the defendant named above

1. You are being sued.
2. This paper is a Summons in a lawsuit.
3. The Complaint attached to this Summons states the claims that the Plaintiff is making against you in this lawsuit.
4. To respond to this Summons, and to be informed of further proceedings, you or your attorney must file an Appearance (form JD-CL-12) that includes important contact and other information such as your e-mail address (see note below) with the Clerk of Court at the Court address listed above on or before the second day after the Return Date listed above. The Return Date is the date that your case is officially in court. It is not a date you have to come to court unless another notice says that you have to be in court that day.
5. An Appearance form is attached to this Summons. You can also get the Appearance form at any courthouse or online at www.jud.ct.gov/webforms/.
6. The Court will send notice of a Resolution Plan Date approximately 5 days after the Return Date. At the Resolution Plan Date, the parties will meet with Family Services to discuss the case and see if the parties can come to an agreement. If so, the parties will present the agreement to the Court for approval. If not, the Court will determine what the next steps in the case should be.
7. If you do not attend your Resolution Plan Date, the Court may enter orders against you.
8. In cases of dissolution or legal separation, if you or your attorney do not file a written Appearance (form JD-CL-12) by _____ (30 days after the Return Date), the Plaintiff can ask the Court to enter judgment against you for the relief requested in the complaint without further notice to you. In this event, judgment may enter against you as soon as: (i) 30 days after the Return Date if you were served with the complaint by personal service or abode service (at your residence); or (ii) 60 days after the Return Date if you were served in any other manner.
9. Once this Summons and other papers have been filed with the Court, you may check the status of the lawsuit at www.jud.ct.gov.
10. If you have questions about the Summons, Complaint, Notice of Automatic Court Orders (form JD-FM-158) or Appearance (form JD-CL-12), you should talk to an attorney quickly. The Clerk of Court is not allowed to give advice on legal questions.
